CHILD SAFETY AWARENESS DAY

Over 1 million children run away or are reported missing or abducted each year, and most parents do not have suitable photos to aid authorities in the recovery of these children. Parents will be able to obtain free "passports" from Polaroid's Project KidCare at Child Safety Day. It will include a photograph, fingerprint and valuable physical and medical information about their child. Tips to prevent child abuse and abduction will be distributed by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Ron Tonkin will host Child Safety Awareness Day at its dealership on Saturday, May 22 from 10 AM until 2 PM.
