

702

One of the hottest selling single in the country (all formats) is 702's "Where My Girls At" which was written and produced by Missy Elliott, who also wrote, produced and rapped on the blazing first single of their career, "Steelo" (from 702's 1996 debut album).

For their sophomore album, 702 worked with producers Missy Elliott, Rick "Dutch" Cousin (Ice Cube, Dru Hill), Soul Shock & Karlin (Whitney Houston), David "Pic" Connelly (Teddy Riley), Anders Bagge (98 Degrees, Ace of Base), Warrryn Campbell (Dru Hill), Greg Charley (Regina Belle).

702 was discovered by Michael Bivins (former member of New Edition and BBD who also discovered Boyz II Men and the Biv 10 Pee Wees) at a music industry conference. The group is named after the area code of their hometown, Las Vegas, Nevada.

Kameelah Williams, 21, is the conservative, yet sexy member. LeMisha Grinstead, 21, is the adventurous member who brings the drama. Irish Grinstead, 19, is the glam girl. All three had just signed a modeling contract with the Wilhelmina Modeling Agency.

From the start, 702's has been a successful girl group. Their debut album, No Doubt, went Gold and produced two TOP 10 Gold singles for the group, "Steelo" and "Get It Together." In 1997, 702 won the Soul Train Lady of Soul Award for best album by a group.
