All You Need Is Love

Grab the little ones and step right up to hop aboard the yellow submarine with Music For Little People's release of our favorite Beatles songs for children, All You Need Is Love. This is a timeless adventure of dancing, laughter and sing-a-longs the whole family will enjoy...even when you're 64!

Leading off these twelve songs, chosen especially for the young and young at heart, is the celebrative title song All You Need Is Love - the only ticket necessary for a great time. Dear Prudence is coaxed by the sweet pleas of young friends to come out to play and, lookout! The kids are at the helm of the Yellow Submarine, laughing and singing their way across the waters. The young harmonies are exceptional and their adaptations of these songs are perfect for introducing this legendary music to the younger generation.

Guest appearances by child troubadour, Raffi and Blues artist, Eric Bibb, complete the talented cast of child singers. Raffi performs a rendition of Octopus's Garden complete with big band instruments, creating a festive atmosphere and Bluesman Eric Bibb sings the tender Here Comes The Sun, joined by his young friends.

Grammy-nominated Executive Producer, Leib

Ostrow and Associate Producer John Alevizakis have included many of the young singers who performed on the earlier releases of "Toddlers Sing" (1998) and "A Child's Hanukkah" (1998). Both producers join in the fun, adding their vocals and instrumentation to several songs.

Other sons include Birthday, Life Goes On, Blackbird, All Together Now, Mother Nature's Son, With A Little Help From My Friends, When I'm 64 and Hello Goodbye.

So whether you are 64, or just having your 6th birthday, you are invited to come along and play with us - and all you need is love. It's truly a magical tour, and the only mystery is why you're still waiting. Let's go!

Portland OIC Rosemary Anderson High School 1999 Appreciation Dinner

Sharon Pratt Kelly defied great odds on November 6, 1990, to become the first female leader of the nation's capitol, and the first African-American woman to serve as mayor of a major urban city. Mrs. Kelly served as Mayor of the major urban city.

Mrs. Kelly is a native Washington, who attended District of Columbia public schools. She furthered her education at Howard University. Earning a BA with honors in political science in 1965 and a Juris doctorate from Howard University Law School in 1968. Mrs. Kelly's professional career includes serving as an instructor at the Antioch School of Law, Vice-Chair of the D.C. Law Revision Commission, vice President of the Potomac Electric Power Company, and terms as the Democratic National Committeewoman from the District of Columbia.

Mrs. Kelly has been active in her community all of her life. She has been a member of the Legal Aid Society, Howard University Board of Trustees; St. Mary's College Board of Trustees, and the Washington Bar Association. Mrs. Kelly is a life member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Among the local and national awards Mrs. Kelly has received-W.E.B Du Bois Ward, presented by the Congressional Black Caucus, the Ebony Magazine Award, the Thurgood Marshall Award of Excellence, and the NAACP Award. Mrs. Kelly has also been bestowed honorary degrees.

Sharon Pratt Kelly is a most appropriate keynote speaker for POIC's Appreciation Dinner. During her tenure as Mayor, and believing that the only way to lead is by example, Mrs. Kelly called for every business and individual in Washington, D.C., to return to the ethic of caring and providing for the city's youth - to become an extended family that assumes full and active responsibility for educating, training, mentoring and employing our Young people. Her Youth Initiative Program, for which she remains and active mentor, became a model for the country.
