

The North Star Ballroom

Established in 1997, NORTH STAR BALLROOM was renovated by Christy Eugenis in order to create an inviting mixed-use event space catering to a wide range of groups. Located in the heart of North Portland, the Ballroom has become a nexus of artistic, civic, professional and celebratory activity. Artists know it as a rehearsal and performance space; community leaders, as a meeting place, and the neighborhood as a welcomed private event facility. The intersection of these interests and energies inform the spirit of this Fall's North Star Ballroom's Performance Salon Series.

The Performance Salon Series, while artistic in intent, also seeks to raise issues and provoke questions. This reflects the Ballroom's role as a community center in a diverse and vital neighborhood and mirrors the interests of many artists at the close of the 20th century. The Performance Salon Series presents serious themes given creative, sometimes humorous, always lively expression. Merymaking concludes each evening as dancing to live or dj'd music reigns from 11 PM - 1 AM.

The NORTH STAR BALLROOM is a multi-use Renaissance-style building at 635 North Killingsworth Court, one blocksouth of Killingsworth Street at Borthwick in North Portland, presents the debut of a fascinating performing arts series. The last one will be held on November 12.

As conceived and produced by Christy Eugenis and Harriet Fasenfest North Star Ballroom's Performance Salon Series will conclude with Consumption in November. Making creative use of the size and feel of the site's several spaces of varying sizes, each evening in the Performance Salon Series offers a menu of arts experiences. Mainstage (ballroom) artists may be popular (Jesus Presley) or cutting edge (Miranda July), well known (Gregg Bielemeir) or emerging (Rochelle Hart), with many creating pieces to be seen for the first (and perhaps only) time at the Performance Salon Series. Mainstage performances will be flanked by satellite events and activities in the ballroom's surrounding rooms.
