

ON FILM

House on Haunted Hill

Synopsis: A remake of the 1958 horror classic, this version casts Jeffrey Combs, Taye Diggs, Peter Gallagher and Famke Janssen as four strangers who are offered a million dollars each to spend a night at a haunted mansion. Dismissing the ominous past of the house as mere rumor, they accept the proposal and find themselves at the center of its wrath.

Genre: Horror

Rating: R, for horror violence and gore, sexual images and language

Cast: Jeffrey Combs, Taye Diggs, Peter Gallagher, Chris Kattan and Famke Jansen

Credits: Directed by William Malone. Written by Dick Beebe. Based on the 1958 screenplay by Robb White. Based on the story by Dick Beebe and William Malone. Produced by Gilbert Adler, Joel Silver and Robert Zemeckis. Released by Warner Bros.

Running Time: 1 hour 55 minutes
Theatrical Release Date: October 29, 1999

Sleepy Hollow

Synopsis: Director Tim Burton ("Edward Scissorhands", "Ed Wood") reunites with actor Johnny Depp for this adaptation of Washington Irving's classic novel. Depp plays Icabod Crane, whose courtship with Christina Ricci leads to an encounter with the legendary headless horseman in the nearby woods. Miranda Richardson and Casper Van Dien co-star.

Genre: Horror Rating: No Rating
Cast: Johnny Depp, Christina Ricci, Miranda Richardson, Christopher Walken, Michael Gambon and Casper Van Dien
Credits: Directed by Tim Burton. Written by Kevin Yagher and Andrew Kevin Walker. Based on the story by Washington Irving. Produced by Scott Rudin and Adam Walker.

Released by Paramount.
Theatrical Release Date: November 19, 1999

Bone Collector

Synopsis: Together, Denzel Washington and Angelina Jolie make one complete forensic detective. While Jolie surveys the crime scenes of a serial killer, quadriplegic Washington offers professional advice from the sideline. Although they're in constant communication, their physical separation presents some dangerous risks.

Genre: Action/Adventure
Rating: R, for strong violent content including grisly images, and for language

Cast: Denzel Washington, Angelina Jolie, Queen Latifah, Ed O'Neill, Michael Rooker, Mike McGlone and Leland Orser.
Credits: Directed by Phillip Noyce. Written by Jeremy Lacone. Based on the novel by Jeffery Deaver. Produced by Martin Bregman and Michael Scott Bregman.

Released by Universal.
Running Time: 1 hour 58 minutes
Theatrical Release Date: November 5, 1999
Synopsis: Depending on taste and creed, writer-director Kevin

Dogma

Smith's latest concoction will either go down as grand

The Green Mile

Synopsis: Set during the Great Depression, Michael Clarke Duncan plays a Death Row murderer in a Southern prison who possesses the unusual gift of healing. Tom Hanks co-stars as the penitentiary guard who, upon discovering the inmate's miraculous power and gentle nature, begins to question the man's guilt. Based on Stephen King's 1996 best-selling novel.

Genre: Drama Rating: No Rating
Cast: Tom Hanks, Patricia Clarkson, James Cromwell, Jeffrey DeMunn and Michael Duncan
Credits: Directed by Frank Darabont. Written by Frank Darabont. Based on the novel by Stephen King. Produced by David Valdes. Released by Warner Bros.

Theatrical Release Date: December 10, 1999

Don't forget the popcorn

National Videos

National Video Rentals for this week

1. "The Blair Witch Project" (Artisan)
2. "The Matrix" (Warner Bros.)
3. "The Mummy" (Universal Pictures)
4. "Analyze This" (Warner Bros.)
5. "Life" (Universal Pictures)
6. "Election" (Paramount)
7. "Forces Of Nature" (DreamWorks)
8. "Go" (Sony)
9. "The Rage: Carrie 2" (MGM/UA)
10. "The Thirteenth Floor" (Sony)

National Video Sales for this week

1. "The Blair Witch Project" (Artisan)
2. "The Mummy" (Universal)
3. "Yellow Submarine" (MGM/UA)
4. "The Prince of Egypt" (DreamWorks)
5. "Playboy's Blue Collar Babes" (Playboy)
6. "Ricky Martin: the Official Video Collection" (Columbia)
7. "Playboy 2000 - Video Playmate Calendar" (Playboy)
8. "American History X" (New Line)
9. "Doug's 1st Movie" (Disney)
10. "Elizabeth" (USA)