

ON FILM

Box Office

1. Pokemon: The First Movie (WARNERS) $52.1
2. The Bone Collector (UNIVERSAL) $35.3
3. Dogma (LIONS GATE) $8.8
4. The Messenger: The Story of Joan of Arc (SONY) $6.3
5. Anywhere But Here (FOX) $5.7
6. The Insider (BUENA VISTA) $14.2
7. The Bachelor (NEW LINE) $14.42
8. House on Haunted Hill (WARNERS) $34.8
9. Double Jeopardy (PARAMOUNT) $108.7
10. The Sixth Sense (BUENA VISTA) $267.8

National Video Rentals

1. "The Blair Witch Project" (Artisan)
2. "The Matrix" (Warner Bros.)
3. "The Mummy" (Universal)
4. "Analyze This" (Warner Bros.)
5. "Life" (Universal)
6. "Election" (Paramount)
7. "Forces Of Nature" (DreamWorks)
8. "Go" (Sony)
9. "The Rage: Carrie 2" (MGM/UA)
10. "The Thirteenth Floor" (Sony)

National Video Sales

1. "The Blair Witch Project" (Artisan)
2. "The Mummy" (Universal)
3. "Yellow Submarine" (MGM/UA)
4. "The Prince of Egypt" (DreamWorks)
5. "Playboy's Blue Collar Babes" (Playboy)
6. "Ricky Martin: the Official Video Collection" (Columbia)
7. "Playboy 2000 - Video Playmate Calendar" (Playboy)
8. "American History X" (New Line)
9. "Doug's 1st Movie" (Disney)
10. "Elizabeth" (USA)

Light it up

- Synopsis: Usher Raymond, Rosario Dawson and Sara Gilbert are high school students who demand an explanation after the unjust termination of teacher Judd Nelson. The innocent protest turns into a police standoff when security guard Forest Whitaker is accidentally shot and taken hostage. The students decide to use the brewing media frenzy to voice their concern about the state of education.
- Genre: Drama
- Rating: R, for language and violent content

• Cast: Usher Raymond, Rosario Dawson, Marcello Robison, Vanessa L. Williams and Forest Whitaker
 • Credits: Directed and written by Craig Bolotin. Produced by Tracey E. Edmonds. Released by 20th Century Fox.

• Running Time: 1 hour 38 minutes
 • Theatrical Release Date: November 10, 1999

The world is not enough

- Synopsis: Pierce Brosnan returns as sexy super-spy James Bond. The agent's assignment is as follows: he must protect Sophie Marceau, the sole heir of a British oil tycoon, from terrorists' influence. Unfortunately, she double-crosses him and the world's oil supply is put in peril. Now, he must take on a villain who feels no physical pain, with the help of do-gooder scientist Denise Richards.
- Rating: No Rating
- Cast: Pierce Brosnan, Sophie Marceau, Denise Richards, Robert Carlyle and Judi Dench

• Credits: Directed by Michael Apted. Written by Bruce Feirstein, Michael France, Neal Purvis, Dana Stevens and Robert Wade. Produced by Barbara Broccoli and Michael G. Wilson. Released by MGM/UA.

• Theatrical Release Date: November 19, 1999.

Pokemon: the First Movie

- Synopsis: Released in Japan in 1998, this first Pokemon feature length animation has finally made its way to the shores of America. In this latest adventure, Master Ash faces his greatest challenge in his quest to become the world's top Pokemon trainer. He must capture and tame a new strain of genetically improved Super Pokemon whose power exceeds those of the existing ones.
- Genre: Family
- Rating: G

• Cast: various animated Pokemon
 • Credits: Produced by Shogakukan Productions Co., Ltd. Released by Warner Bros.
 • Running Time: 1 hour 36 minutes

• Theatrical Release Date: November 10, 1999

Felicia's journey

- Synopsis: Director Atom Egoyan ("Exotica," "The Sweet Hereafter") returns to the screen with another acute observation into the human dark side. Elaine Cassidy plays a young, exiled Irish girl looking for her boyfriend in England. Instead, she meets Bob Hoskins, an outwardly sympathetic figure with a particular soft spot for lonely, young girls.
- Genre: Drama
- Rating: PG-13, for mature thematic elements and related disturbing images
- Cast: Elaine Cassidy, Bob Hoskins, Sidney Cole, Arsinee Khanjian and Brid Brennan

• Credits: Written, directed and produced by Atom Egoyan. Based on the novel by William Trevor. Released by Artisan Pictures.

• Running Time: 1 hour 56 minutes
 • Theatrical Release Date: November 12, 1999 - limited engagement; November 24, 1999 - expanded release

Anywhere but here

- Synopsis: Susan Sarandon plays a single mother in Beverly Hills who dreams of a better life for herself and daughter Natalie Portman. But her pursuit of wealth and glamour never materializes; Sarandon works a dead-end job, while Portman, yearning for home, grudgingly endures the consequences of her mother's whims.
- Cast: Susan Sarandon, Natalie Portman, Shawn Hatosy, Hart Bochner and Bonnie Bedelia

• Credits: Directed by Wayne Wang. Written by Alvin Sargent. Based on the novel by Mona Simpson. Produced by Laurence Mark. Released by 20th Century Fox.

• Running Time: 1 hour 53 minutes
 • Theatrical Release Date: November 12, 1999.

Don't forget
the popcorn