Late Nite Catechism extended through March

CONTRIBUTED STORY
FOR THE PORTLAND OBSERVER

Late Nite Catechism Extended Through March 26, 2000! Late Nite Catechism, the hilarious one woman/everynun show will continue to delight audiences into the new century - it has been extended through March 26, 2000. Tickets are currently on sale at all Ticketmaster locations, or by calling 790-ARTS. For group sales, call, (503) 226-0973. The current performance schedule for Late Nite Catechism is Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:00 p.m. and a Sunday matinee at 2:00 p.m., at Main Street Theater, 904 SW Main Street at Park Avenue, Portland, Oregon. Local actress, Tina Paradiso, continues to wear "the Habit" in the role of "Sister."

Over the past year, 50,000 "students" have attended Sister's Late Nite Catechism class in Portland, and, thanks to Sister's gentle prodding, have contributed more than $48,000 to the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary at Marylhurst College, Lake Oswego, Oregon. The donation helps support the Order's retirement and medical assistance programs.

Rose city church offers free concert

Sunday, January 23, at 3:00 p.m., Rose City Park United Methodist Church will present the Miles Ahead in concert. This concert is the sixth of twelve concerts in the 1999-2000 concert season. Miles Ahead showcases original jazz and timeless covers. The blend is smooth and sweet featuring fun, enjoyable music for the whole family. The group has performed in a variety of venues including Davinci Days Jazz Festival, Nike World Masters Games, Portland Historical Society. They opened for Olu Dara, appeared on Good Day Oregon and KMHD. Their program will cover Latins, fusion, ballads, swing blues, funk and contemporary jazz. Rose City Park United Methodist Church is located at 5830 N.E. Alameda. Admission to the concert is a free will offering taken at intermission with net proceeds to benefit two local agencies, FISH and Loaves & Fishes. Free childcare is available. The church is located on Tri-Met bus line. Call Patricia Holman, Concert Coordinator, 283-0353, should you require any additional information. Season brochures are available by calling the church office at 281-1229.
