Madwomen's Late Nite Cabaret features history's craziest

Madwomen's Late Night Cabaret features some of Portland's top musical theater performers portraying history's craziest women singing your favorite Broadway Showtunes. The same group who brought you CHRISTMAS WITH PDQ BACH is set up to shake up your perceptions of songs you thought you knew, in this original musical production conceptualized, developed and performed by members of the American Heritage Theater Project's core ensemble, Julie Barber, Vicki Righettini, Darrin Murrell, Val Landrum, and special guest, Stephen Alexander. The one hour performance features such combinations as Medusa singing Hair, Joan of Arc lamenting, Smoke Gets in Your Eyes, Camille crooning Fever and Lizzie Borden at the piano. Other madwomen on the bill include Lady Godiva, Medea, Sybil, and a few familiar severed heads.

This original musical production of Madwomen's Late Nite Cabaret will premiere at the Northwest Neighborhood Cultural Center at 1819 NW Everett Street in Portland from March 3 through March 25. Tickets are $8 and can be reserved by calling 503/245-3642.
