An event for all ages

CONTRIBUTED STORY FOR THE PORTLAND OBSERVER

There's something for every car enthusiast young and old at the upcoming Summer Barbecue and Car Show sponsored by the Clark College Alumni Association on Sunday, August 20. The event will be held on the College Campus at 1800 E. McLoughlin Boulevard in Vancouver from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Presentation displays will feature Clark's Diesel and Automotive programs. Classic autos from area car clubs and Clark College alumni will be there in the Fort Vancouver Way parking lots. A barbecue in the Andersen Plaza is available for $3 per person. On Saturday and Sunday, the R.O.A.R. (Remotely Operated Auto Racers) Region 11 Touring Car Championships will take place in the parking lot south of the O'Connell Sport Center. All activities are free and open to the public.

Co-sponsors include Snap-on, Gaynor's Automotive, Baxter Auto Parts and NW Natural. For car show registration or for more general information, contact the Clark College Alumni Office at (360)992-2374.

Birdwatching and berry picking at Salmon Creek Greenway

CONTRIBUTED STORY FOR THE PORTLAND OBSERVER

Join AmeriCorps members from Vancouver-Clark Parks and Recreation on August 19 from 8 a.m. to noon for the first annual Salmon Creek Bird Count. Volunteers of all ages and levels of experience are invited to help monitor our songbird population. At noon, we will pull Himalayan Blackberry plants. This invasive species overruns native plants and decreases plant diversity. Help protect our amazing native plants. Stay for tasty berry treats at 2 p.m. when we will have a blackberry picnic in the park with cobbler and ice cream.

Bring a fork and a plate. From Vancouver take I-5 northbound to the 99 st. exit. Turn left (west) on 99th and then right (north) on Hazel Dell Avenue. Turn left into the Salmon Creek Sports Center. Meet the AmeriCorps members at the trailhead near the softball fields. Please R.S.V.P.

Crime Stoppers

 On Friday, April 21, at about 1 pm,

a 28-year-old woman was returning from a camping trip when she stopped at a restaurant located at Northeast 125 and Sandy Boulevard. While in the parking lot of the restaurant, the woman was sexually assaulted in her van. The suspect also took property belonging to the victim. The suspect is described as a black male, 23 to 27 years of age, 5'10" to 6'0" tall, with a slender build, and what was described as a young, "feminine" face. He was wearing a thigh length, green, army style jacket, a medium blue, long sleeve shirt with a hood, and jeans. Investigators believe the suspect may frequent the area or live nearby. Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward of up to $1,000 for information, reported to Crime Stoppers that leads to an arrest in the case or any unsolved felony crime, and you need not give your name. Call Crime Stoppers at (503) 823-HELP.

Police Bites

Prostitution mission conducted by central precinct

On Friday, July 28, and Saturday, July 29, 2000, officers of Central Precinct conducted a prostitution mission targeting problem areas along W. Burnside / Park Avenue to 17th Avenue. As a result, 28 males were arrested for Prostitution, one male for Possession of a Controlled Substance in Second Degree, and one male for Public Indecency (urinating in Public). There were 12 vehicles seized and towed during the mission, as well as 12 traffic citations issued.

The affected neighborhood associations, business owners and resident have encouraged these ongoing prostitution missions because they give warning to the "johns" that if they come into their neighborhoods looking for prostitutes they will be arrested. Repeat offenders will lose their vehicles permanently, based on the city's vehicle forfeiture ordinance.

Fatal traffic collision claims two lives SE 112th Avenue / SE Flavel Street

On Saturday, July 29, 2000, at 2:59 a.m., a fatal traffic collision occurred at SE 112th Avenue and SE Flavel Street, which claimed the lives of two people and injured three others.

Home Invasion Robbery Suspect Arrested

At approximately 7:30 pm, Friday, July 28 Aaron Michael Quigley, D.O.B. 6/7/82 was taken into custody by Multnomah County Major Crimes Team Detectives, Officers from the Portland Police Bureau and Deputies from the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office at a fast-food restaurant in North Portland. Acting on a tip, police established an intensive surveillance of locations Quigley was thought to frequent. Quigley was wanted in connection with a home invasion robbery that took place in Fairview on July 17th. Four armed intruders, including this suspect broke into an apartment of the victim and attempted to rob him, two other adults and a child at gunpoint. The resident (victim) managed to get to a firearm of his own and fired at the suspects, chasing them from the apartment. Three of the four suspects were arrested on July 17th. Quigley is lodged at the Justice Center Jail charged with five counts of Robbery I, five counts of Robbery II,

The investigation is continuing.

Homicide suspect arrested 1793 NW Martin Road, Forest Grove

Portland Police Bureau Homicide Detectives have been conducting an ongoing investigation into the death of 39 year-old Robert Leroy Gilbo, who was found in his car on Friday, July 14, 2000, at the intersection of Vancouver Avenue and N. Monroe Street. Information was developed which lead to the arrest of a suspect. On Thursday, July 27, 2000 at 11:00 p.m., the Washington County Sheriff's Office Tactical Negotiation Team took 31 year-old Timothy Alan Schubert into custody without incident. Schubert was apprehended in a parked motor home at a nursery located at 1793 NW Martin Road in Washington County. A handgun was found in the motor home after Schubert was taken into custody. Timothy Alan Schubert has been charged with one count of Aggravated Murder with a Firearm and one count of Robbery in the First Degree with a Firearm.

Schubert was booked into the Multnomah County Booking Facility and is being held without bail. Arraignment was held on Monday, July 31, 2000, at 2:00 p.m., at the Justice Center.

Suspects In Sexual Assault Apprehended

On Wednesday, August 9, 2000, at about 2 a.m., North Precinct Officer Jason Sery while on routine patrol, noticed suspicious activity in an alley in the 6800 block of N. Oregonian, between N. Fessenden and N. Powers. The officer observed a female being held by one male as another male sexually assaulted her. As the officer drove closer, he heard the victim screaming. When the officer shined his spotlight on the individuals, both males began running from the officer and then proceeded to get on bicycles to flee east on N. Powers. Officer Sery apprehended the suspects at the intersection of N. Oregonian and N. Columbia Way. The suspects are identified as 17-year-old Michael Levon Rhone and 17-year-old Matthew Charles Monhead. Both were arrested and charged with Rape in the First Degree and Sodomy in the First Degree. The suspects are lodged at the Multnomah County Juvenile Detention Facility and will be arraigned tomorrow. The victim, a 34-year-old woman, was taken to OHSU. Anyone with additional information regarding this case, are asked to contact Det. Sgt. Jon Rhodes at (503) 823-0400.
