

Portland Hosts International Photography

Photograph by Phil Borges

During the month of October, Portland will be celebrating its premier event, Photo Americas 2000, placing itself first among West Coast cities to host an international Photography Festival. Capitalizing on that energy, the Photographic Image Gallery will hold a group show of 53 gallery artists.

A group show in this setting is an excellent way to showcase the curatorial vein of the gallery.

Artist careers are traced through retrospective shows, providing a venue to see the artists development. In the same way a viewer can ascertain the progression and consistency of a gallery through a group show.

Mixing with highly recognized photographers like Christopher Burkett, Chip Hooper, Phil Borges, and James Balog will be some of today's more contemporary emerging photographers like Connie Imboden, Beth Yarnelle Edwards, Deborah Whitehouse, and Paul Kozal.

The gallery is open regularly Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m. - 5:30 p.m., and is located at 240SW First Avenue, on the MAX rail line at the Oak Street Station. For more information, call 503/224-3543.
