

The Portland Observer

www.portlandobserver.com

Committed to Cultural Diversity

October 04, 2000

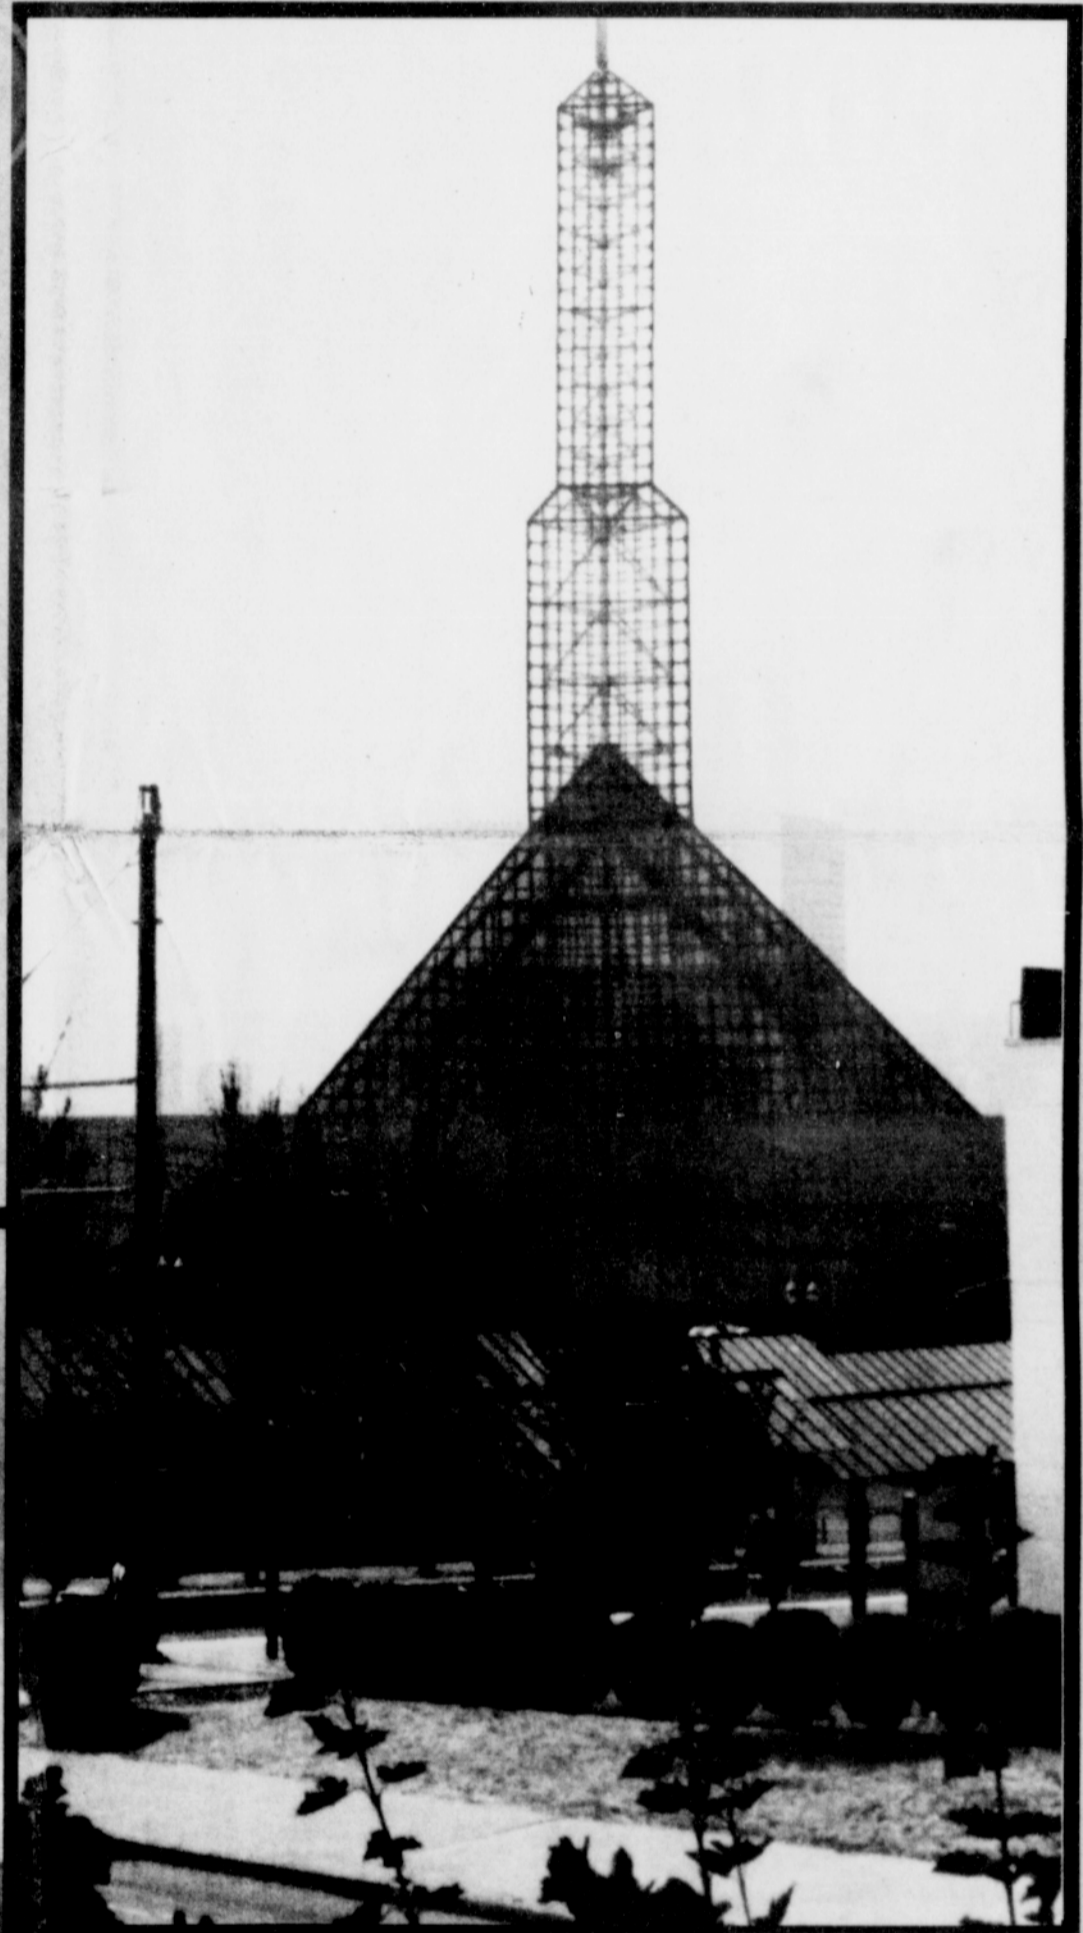

Women's Business Forum

Minority
Business
MB
2000

Celebrating 30
Years
Service to Our City

More women than ever are choosing to take economic control of their future by running their own business. Collectively, their successes are helping to advance the status of all women. The Portland Observer supports them in their endeavors through the "Women's Business Forum." Join us as we introduce some of the leading women entrepreneurs creating a culture of socially responsible businesses and sustainable communities.