

The Focus Bibleman Live 2000:

Conquering the Wrath of Rage

Bibleman Live 2000: Conquering the Wrath of Rage is a full-scale, action packed stage show that combines pyrotechnics, laser lights, a giant two-story set, vivid costumes, colorful villains and larger-than-life heroes.

Inspired by the parent-endorsed, ever-popular children's Bibleman Video Series, Bibleman Live delivers unique, exciting and positive messages that encourage, influence and promote morals, integrity and wholesome principles that are trusted by children, teachers and parents alike.

Former pop-culture icon Willie Aames (Eight is Enough, Charles in Charge) is one of the most passionate and purposeful executives in the entertainment business. Aames is not only co-writer and director of the Bibleman Video Series and Bibleman Live

Show, he is also the vice president of Pamplin Entertainment and stars as none other than Bibleman himself!

Now in its fourth year of national performances, Bibleman Live 2000: Conquering the Wrath of Rage, will be at the New Hope Community Church, located at 11731 SE Stevens Rd. on Wednesday, Nov. 15 at 6:30 p.m. Bibleman and cast will be available to sign autographs at the Division Street Christian Supply prior to the show from 2:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. and also at the New Hope Community Church following the performance. Tickets are available at Christian Supply and New Hope Community Church bookstore (limited hours of operation), are $6 for general admission and $7.50 for premium seating. For further information, call 503/251-1555.

Willie Aames stars as Bibleman who will be in Portland delivering positive messages to our youth about morals, integrity and wholesome principles.
