Crime Stoppers

Man and Woman Sought in Robbery

Portland Police Bureau Robbery Detectives, in cooperation with Crime Stoppers, are asking for your help in locating and apprehending the individuals responsible for a pedestrian robbery and forgery.

On Thursday, Dec. 21, at about 8:20 p.m., a man and woman got out of their car in the 3500 block of Southeast 11th Avenue. A man armed with a handgun and wearing a black bandana over his face approached them and took the woman's purse. A short time later, a male and female attempted to use a stolen credit card from the purse at a Milwaukee department store. The suspect attempting to use the card was described as a Hispanic male in his 20s, 5'10" tall, husky build, closely shaved head, goatee and numerous tattoos on his hands and arms. He was dressed in a black jacket with trim, black t-shirt, black pants, and black and white athletic shoes. A Hispanic female accompanied him in her 20's, 5'5" tall, with a medium build. She was wearing a blue hip length jacket with white sleeves, blue jeans and dark colored shoes.

Crime Stoppers is offering cash reward of up to $1,000 for information, reported to Crime Stoppers, which leads to an arrest in this case or any unsolved felony crime, and you can remain anonymous. Call Crime Stoppers at 503-823-HELP.

Surveillance video captures two suspects accused of using a woman's stolen credit card in a Milwaukee store after robbing the woman at gunpoint.

Body Found in Basement of Home

Youth Arrested in North Portland Homicide

Police arrested an 18-year-old man for the murder of a man whose body was found in the basement of a woman's house at 623 N. Blandina Sunday.

Michael James Jones was held without bail at the Multnomah County Detention Center. The victim was described only as a Latino man in his mid-30s.

Michael Jones

Police spokesman Lt. Mike Hefley said he had lived as a guest at the home for about a week.

The victim had been beaten and wrapped in plastic, a Portland TV station reported. Jones lives in the neighborhood and is an acquaintance of the woman who discovered the body, Hefley said.
