Sick and Twisted Festival of Animation

Friday, March 2 - Saturday, March 4

Spike and Mike, the guys who first brought you Beavis and Butthead, South Park, Rugrats and Wallace & Gromit, are back and ready to unleash their 2001 feature length collection of bizarre, shocking and disturbingly grotesque animated short films. Spike and Mike's Sick and Twisted Festival of Animation is not for those with an overly refined artistic palate. For screening times, call Cinema 21, located at 616 NW 21st Ave. at 503/223-4515.

James Canfield Ballets

Saturday, March 3 - Sunday, March 4

In a true example of "leaping from tradition" Oregon Ballet Theatre presents a new collection of three original James Canfield ballets to launch its spring season of dance in Portland. The evening concludes with the premiere of Canfield's newest and most avant garde work of the season. Be prepared for the hallmark Canfield style that has raised eyebrows, stimulated discussion and "built" new audiences for the future of dance in the Northwest. The event will take place at Keller Auditorium, located at SW 3rd and Clay in downtown Portland at 7:30 p.m. on March 3 and at 2 p.m. on March 4. Call 503/227-0977.

The Last Night of Ballyhoo Through Sunday, March 4

It's Christmas 1939 in Atlanta. Clark Gable is five miles away at the premiere of "Gone With the Wind." Adolph Hitler is invading Poland, and Brooklyn-bred Joe Farkas is making inroads at the Dixie Bedding Company. But the big news in the extended Freitag family - Adolph, Reba, Boo, Lala, and Sunny - is who's taking who to Ballyhoo, the social event of the season. A witty romantic comedy with serious undertones of race and prejudice, this Tony Award winner by the author of "Driving Miss Daisy" is one you won't soon forget. Previews of this play will be at the Portland Actors Conservatory, located at 1436 SW Montgomery St. Call 503/274-1717.

March Pledge Drive Sunday, March 4

"Couples" - a dynamic window into the relationship lives of sixteen people launches the March Pledge Drive on the stations of Oregon Public Broadcasting, March 4, from 2 p.m. - 6 p.m. The five part series explores the conflict and connections of eight couples during an intensive workshop facilitated by Drs. Bennet Wong, and Jock McKeen.

Sunday Jazz at the Old Church Sundays on March 4, 11, 18 and 25

Every Sunday, the Old Church Concert Hall, located at 1422 SW 11th will be having their Jazz Series offering artistic jazz in an elegant setting with food, wine and beer available before and during the performance. Proceeds benefit the restoration of The Old Church's stained glass window, "Consider the Lilies" by the Povey Brothers Studio, circa 1892. For more info., call Sandy Stallcup at 503/636-0198 or visit their website at www.oldchurch.org.

Thursday, March 8

On Thursday, March 8, McMenamins Edgefield serves the Jameson Irish Whiskey Dinner in the Ballroom. Seating begins at 7 p.m., as Executive Chef Chris Berning prepares a special menu of four courses, each paired with a Jameson whiskey and McMenamins Dry Irish Stout. For reservations, call 503/669-8610.

This event will be held on Saturday, March 24, 6 p.m. at Radical Women, located at 819 N. Killingsworth. Call 503/240-4462.

Chinese Take-Out

Saturdays, March 24 and 31

"Chinese Take-Out" is an innovative and imaginative theatre production for adults, will be performed at the Deloris Wittingstad Theatre located at 1111 SW Broadway. The show varies with what the audience chooses to "takeout." Our host takes our order from a menu of Chinese food names, and then serves the order in the form of several vignettes. It is a brilliant conceptual piece, unique and fully developed. The pieces range from whimsical to bawdy. Call 503/248-0557.
