Major Leagues Coming To Portland?

Bill Would Allocate Funds For New Stadium

Major League baseball might be a bit closer to coming to Portland.

Rep. Bill Witt of Portland has introduced a bill that would allocate $150 million in lottery-backed bonds for a baseball stadium once a major league team agrees to relocate to Oregon.

Four teams suffering from poor attendance are thought to be candidates to move to Portland: the Minnesota Twins, the Oakland A's, the Montreal Expos and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays.

If Portland were to get a team, a new ballpark would be necessary. The refurbished PGE Park is not big enough to handle a major league team.

Blazers Rally, Top Rockets

HOUSTON (AP) — Rasheed Wallace and the Portland Trail Blazers came to life just in time to beat the Houston Rockets.

Wallace scored 20 of his 27 points in the second half as the Trail Blazers beat the Rockets 95-89 Monday night.

Damon Stoudamire shot 4-for-7 from 3-point range and added 18 points for Portland, which had lost three of its last four.

Steve Francis had 14 points and nine assists for the Rockets.
