

Driven

Jimmy Bly (Kip Pardue) is an unfocused rookie race-car driver who needs some serious shaping up. Car owner Carl Henry (Burt Reynolds) brings in Joe Tanto (Sylvester Stallone, who also wrote the script), a once-promising racer who is now haunted by a tragic accident that nearly killed him and another racer. Tanto must overcome his fears, confront his past and get back into the driven world of racing.

Synopsis: Based on the CART open-wheel racing circuit, a semi-retired driver agrees to coach a young racing prodigy who's pitted against a champion driver.

Genre: Action / Drama / Sports

Rating: Rated PG-13 for language and some intense crash sequences.

Town and Country

Synopsis: A romantic comedy about life, love, friendship, having everything and not getting caught - at least that is the way successful New York architect Peter Stoddard (Warren Beatty) has been living his life. Suddenly shocked by the impending divorce of his friends Mona (Goldie Hawn) and Griffin (Garry Shandling) and confronted by his wife Ellie's (Diane Keaton) suspicions, he decides to come clean, realizing that it is her he truly loves.

Genre: Romance / Comedy

Rating: Rated R for sexuality and language.

A black comedy from producer Michael Douglas, the story unfolds at the bar McCool's, a hopping beer joint, and is told from the point of view of characters Randy (Matt Dillon), who tends bar there; lawyer Carl (Paul Reiser), a patron, and Detective Dehling (John Goodman), who shows up when a dead body appears in the bar. And of course, there's Jewel (Liv Tyler), who is nothing but trouble and what she wants is bigger than all of them put together. Also starring Michael Douglas. (USA Films)

Synopsis: Jewel is a beautiful drifter who attracts the undying devotion of three men — Randy, Randy's cousin and lawyer Carl, and Detective Dehling. Part security seeker, part femme fatale, Jewel strings each fellow along until someone literally ends up dead.

Genre: Black Comedy

Rating: Rated R for violence, sexuality and language.

The Forsaken

On a typical cross country trip, Sean (Kerr Smith) does the big no-no when driving alone—he picks up a hitchhiker (Brendan Fehr). From the second they hit the road, the trip turns into a nightmare. Nick, the hitchhiker, is a vampire hunter, searching for a band of young vampires that feed on hapless victims.

You see not only is Nick a hunter, he is also "infected" and must kill the leader (Jonathan Schaech) in order to save himself, a young girl they find along the way and yes, poor Sean. He should have stayed home.

Synopsis: Sean picks up a hitchhiker, Nick, while driving cross country to deliver a car. Except Nick is no ordinary guy: he is a vampire hunter with a mission. On their journey they pick up Megan, who had been left for dead on the side of the road by a band of nomadic vampires. They must find and kill their leader in order to save themselves from the fate of the undead, including Sean, who also becomes afflicted.

Genre: Horror / Suspense

Rating: Rated R for strong violence/gore, language and sexuality.
