Looking for AAOW

I found out about your publication because a fellow worker who lives in Troy, Mich. brought it into the office for me to see. I am an African American living in Detroit and get the Sunday Morning (Detroit) News and I have never seen this magazine nor have I seen it at my mother's or daughter's house in Detroit and they get the newspapers every day. Since this is an African - American magazine, wouldn't it serve more African Americans if it was also distributed in their areas? There are a number of positive images and opportunities being missed by the very people this magazine talks about. I am pleased that the magazine is being distributed in the suburbs so that they can see that there are so many positive African Americans but our young people need to see this, too. They also need to know about the opportunities that are being offered and the automotive careers they strive to obtain. Please consider expanding your distribution.

Editor's Note: AAOW is a supplement to newspapers and is distributed to zoned subscribers to those papers. In lay terms, you should get the magazine in Detroit. Our circulation department is looking into that matter. Thank you for bringing it to our attention.

Latinos On Wheels?

Why don't you have a Hispanic auto section?

Editor's Note: Glad you asked. That's in the works. Keep reading for a future announcement as to when it will come.

Where are they now?

I received your magazine as a part of the New York Sunday newspaper. I am an open-wheel racing fan, mainly CART and F1. Do you know whatever became of Benny Scott, an African American who raced F5000 in the 70's? Did you know that McLaren now has a 15-year-old go-cart racer from England who is Black, under contract also? One of the former co-owners of the Arrows team is Nigerian. Is he interested in American open wheel racing?

Editor's Note: Sorry we can't answer any of your questions just yet, but we will pursue for future issues.
