OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY DIXON RECREATION CENTER ADDITION, PHASE III Request for Qualifications

Oregon State University is seeking from General Contractors interested in providing construction services for the OSU Dixon Recreation Center Addition. Oregon State University (OSU) is preparing to add 70,000 square feet to and renovate approximately 15,000 of the Dixon Recreation Center. The existing structure was constructed in two phases; Phase I was completed in 1976 and Phase II, which primarily involved the addition of Stevens Natatorium, was completed in 1992. This project represents the third and final phase of Dixon's development program. The qualification responses will be used to develop a "short list" of three to seven firms who will be invited to participate in bidding on the project. Interested firms should contact Lori Fulton, University Architect, OSU Facilities Services, 100 Adams Hall, Corvallis, Oregon 97331-2001, or at FAX (541) 737-3724, to obtain a copy of the Request for Qualifications (RFQ). Responses to the RFQ will be due by 5PM, Tuesday, June 5, 2001. No responses will be accepted after the specified date and time. Responses may be rejected for non-compliance requirements and procedures, or for good cause upon a finding that it is in the interest of OSU to do so.
