Obituaries

Former Boise School Teacher Dies

Lenna Mae Reynolds died April 29, 2001, at age 99. Mrs. Reynolds was born Lenna Mae Harvey on July 6, 1901, in Brookings, S.D. She graduated from New Mexico Highlands University in Las Vegas, N.M., and moved in the 1920s to Portland. She was an elementary school teacher in Portland Public Schools for 23 years, retiring in 1969 from Boise Elementary School.

Survivors include her daughter, Jeannie C. Briggs; son, Jay M. Dickenson; five grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

A private service was held with interment in Greenwood Hills Cemetery. Remembrances to a favorite charity. Arrangements by Killingsworth Little Chapel of the Chimes.

Longtime Resident Dies at 82

Taylor James Eatton died May 2, 2001, at age 82. Mr. Eatton was born Jan. 1, 1919, in Dayton, Ohio. During World War II, he served in the U.S. Army. He moved in 1943 to Portland and was a mattress-maker for Paramount Bedding for about 32 years, retiring about 1983. In the mid-1950s, he married Margarette Jackson; she died in 1984.

Survivors include his sons, Charles E. and James H.; daughter, Verna M. Birdsong; and grandchildren.

Interment in Willamette National Cemetery under the direction of Caldwell's Colonial Chapel. Workshop Embraces Forgiveness

'Wander'ring Minstrel' Remembered

A memorial service was held May 11, 2001, in First Congregational Church in Vancouver, Wash., for Wilton Julius "Bill" Slocum, who died May 6 at age 84. Mr. Slocum was born March 12, 1917, in Mobridge S.D. He graduated from Dakota Wesleyan University. During World War II, he served in the Army in the South Pacific and earned a Purple Heart. He moved to Vancouver in 1948.

He was a tenor in operas, light operas and solo performances, was featured as the "Wand'ring Minstrel" on KPOJ Radio in the 1950s. He also was a private voice coach and taught music at Lieser Elementary, Lewis Junior High School, Fort Vancouver High School and at David Douglas High School in Portland until retiring in 1975. He founded and led several choral groups, including the Brahms Singers. In 1941, he married Irma Hershey. Survivors include his wife; sons, David and John; daughters, Julie Robinson, Becky Andrews and Beth Nye; 16 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Remembrances to the music fund of his church. Arrangements by Killingsworth Little Chapel of the Chimes.

Workshop Embraces Forgiveness

The Oregon Peace Institute will sponsor a workshop on "the Journey of Forgiveness" on Thursday, May 31 from 6:30-9:30 p.m. in Room 134 of the First United Methodist Church, 1838 SW Jefferson St. Workshop participants will gain a better understanding of what forgiveness is and isn't, discuss some of the benefits of forgiveness, learn about steps involved in the process, identify strategies to overcome barriers people may encounter on the path for forgiveness, and share personal, national and global stories of forgiveness, ending racism, gender issues and organizational development. Pre-register by calling the Oregon Peace Institute at 503-725-8192. A $10 donation is suggested.
