The Language of Western Art Through Sunday, June 24

Join the Portland Art Museum, located at 1219 SW Park Avenue, for a fascinating look at America's two most celebrated Western artists, Frederic Remington and Charles Russell. Their depictions of broncos and buffaloes, cowboys and American Indians helped shape our view of the American West of the late 19th century. The exhibition runs until Sunday, June 24. It consists of an exceptional group of over 100 paintings, sculptures, watercolors, drawings, book illustrations and photographs.

Rose Art Show Through June 29

The Oregon Society of Artists will be having the Rose Art Show 2001 to parallel the Portland Rose Festival. All media paintings depicting this year's theme "Capture the Excitement" or "The Rose" will be on exhibit. The event will be at 2185 S.W. Park Place. Call 503/223-0706.

Visions and Visionaries Through Oct. 31

"Visions and Visionaries," thirty-plus paintings by important

Oregon artists from the era 1880-1930, will be exhibited at Pittock Mansion throughout May until Oct. 31. Visitors may view "Visions and Visionaries" 12-4 p.m. daily. Significant, seldom-seen works by such luminaries as Cleveland Rockwell, William Samuel Parrott, Myra Albert Wiggins, C.E.S. Wood, and Clara Jane Stephes were painstakingly selected for this event by Guest Curator, Michael Parsons. The public is encouraged to call 503/823-3624 for further information.
