

Religion

Vancouver Avenue First Baptist Church Homecoming Fellowship Dinner 'The Church With a Heartfelt Welcome'

PHOTOS BY VERONICA GREEN

Honored members and friends of Vancouver Avenue First Baptist Church enjoy a fantastic gathering.

The homecoming dinner serves 250 with 50 takeouts to shut-in members and friends of Vancouver Avenue First Baptist Church.

Men of the Church sing praise to God and give thanks.

The many volunteers make a sharing of food in love, unity and fellowship possible.

'Our recent Homecoming Fellowship Dinner was a fantastic gathering of 250 members and friends of Vancouver Avenue First Baptist Church joining together in friendship, love and unity. In addition, over 50 dinners were delivered to shut-in members and friends. This celebration was the first of an annual event.

'A special thanks goes to all of the food preparers, workers and home food deliverers,'

— co-chairs, Dorothy Jones and Lavan Johnson

Dorothy Jones (left) and Lavan Johnson, co-chairs of the Homecoming Fellowship Dinner.

People of all ages find a place at the table to share a homecoming with the "Church with a Heartfelt Welcome".

Young people enjoy the Homecoming Fellowship Dinner's spirit of goodwill.

U N I T Y L O V E F E L L O W S H I P