

POLICE/VANCOUVER

Wanted for Identification Fraud

Authorities are trying to identify these men in a suspected case of identification fraud.

The Portland Police Bureau's Gang Enforcement Team, in cooperation with Crime Stoppers is asking for your help in identifying three individuals responsible for obtaining fraudulent identification in numerous different names.

The fraudulent identifications are believed to be used in fraud schemes. The three individuals may or may not know each other, but all three have used forged Colorado Birth Certificates to obtain State of Oregon, Dept. of Motor Vehicles Identification Cards. All three also appear to be familiar with towns and cities in the Willamette Valley from Salem to Eugene and Springfield.

Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward of up to $1,000 for information leading to the positive identification of any or all of the individuals. Call Crime Stoppers at 503-823-HELP (4357).

Masked Gunmen Enter Vancouver Residence

Vancouver Police Officers responded to a residential burglary and assault Nov. 17 in the Fisher's Mill area.

Two males wearing ski masks entered the residence through an unlocked back door and surprised a young female in her bedroom. One of the two suspects was armed with a handgun. The subjects grabbed the victim, threatened her, and attempted to bind her.

When she became agitated, they ran out the door.

A police canine unit and major crime team responded to assist in the investigation. Fingerprints were subsequently recovered from the scene. No suspects have been identified.

Contacts: Jane Scott at 360-696-8119 or Detective Sergeant Lou Braafladt at 360-696-8226.

Guilty Pleas Heard in Portland Policeman Stabbing

(AP) - A 24-year-old man accused of stabbing an off-duty Portland police officer at a downtown restaurant has pleaded guilty to several assault-related charges.

Under a plea bargain, Domanick Campbell of Portland was sentenced to about six years in prison. He also faces three years' probation.

Prior to Campbell's Nov. 19 plea, co-defendant Tyrone Anthony Thurman, 23, pleaded guilty to third-degree assault. Thurman was sentenced to two years in a work-release program, eight weeks to a forest work project and five years' probation.

Police identified Campbell and Thurman as two of seven men who assaulted Officers Chad Gradwahl and David Michaelson on May 26 as the off-duty policemen were leaving the restaurant.

Gradwahl was knocked to the ground unconscious. Michaelson was stabbed in the lower back near his rib cage and struck in the head with a beer can. Both officers were treated at a local hospital and released. Police said the assailants were members of the Crips gang. They described the assault as unprovoked and probably in retaliation for contact one of the suspects had with an officer two nights earlier.

Two other defendants, Ronald Lamont Cunningham, 22, and Anthony Thomas had already pleaded guilty to third-degree assault, and were each sentenced to two years of work-release and five years' probation.

Two other defendants in the case, Dante Lamont Porter, 25, and Damon Cunningham, 25, are scheduled to go to trial Dec. 21. A seventh defendant, Jerrin Lavazie Hickman, 23, is still being sought.

Family Offers Reward in Disappearance

The family of a Gresham man who is missing and feared dead held a news conference last week to announce a $25,000 reward for information leading to an arrest in the case. Mark Jeffery Dribin disappeared on July 2, 1999. His body has not been recovered. Dribin lived at 3629 N.E. 137th Ave.

Anyone with information is asked to call Detective Sergeant Paul Larson at 503-823-0835 or Detective Sergeant Cheryl Kanzler at 503-823-0865.

North Portland Trio Arrested

The Portland Police Bureau and investigators from the Columbia County Sheriff's Office confiscated stolen property and made arrests during a Nov. 16 search of a home at 10215 N. Polk.

Arrested at the scene were Frank Langworthy, 32, and his brother, Richard Langworthy, 30. A third suspect, Ernest Lee Walker Jr., 32, was not present during the execution of the warrant, but was arrested later the same day.

Investigators removed two vans full of stolen property from the residence. The property has been moved to the Oregon State Parole and Probation Office at 7220 N. Lombard. Detectives are conducting an inventory and attempting to locate burglary and car prowl victims whose stolen property may have been recovered.

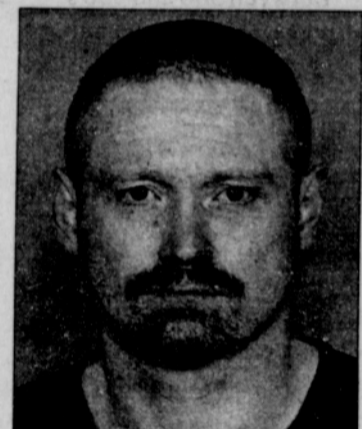

Any question concerning this investigation should be directed to Sergeant Doug Justice of the North Precinct Property Crimes Unit at 503-823-2122.

Frank Langworthy

Richard Langworthy

Ernest Lee Walker Jr.

The Instant Holiday Gift

PCC TUITION BUCKS

- ◆ More than 1,000 courses to choose from, including credits that transfer to just about any university.
- ◆ Sold in $10, $25, and $100 amounts in an attractive presentation folder.
- ◆ A great gift idea for parents, grandparents, family friends, aunts and uncles.

Call 503-533-2882 to order by phone.

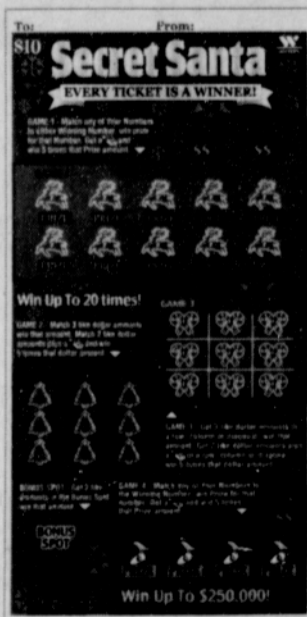

We'll mail your certificates to you the next business day or sooner.

your 1st husband

your 2nd husband

your lawyer

Scratch. For everyone on your list.

Overall odds: 1 in 100,000,000. Must be 18 years of age or older to play. See participating retailers for details.

Mail Centers Test Negative for Anthrax

(AP) — Oregon's central mail processing and distribution centers have tested negative for anthrax, the U.S. Postal Service said.

Authorities never suspected that anthrax spores would be found at the downtown center and a small airport facility used for out-of-state mail. The processing centers were among 260 post office buildings across the country tested.

"We are very pleased to hear the results," USPS District Manager Dallas Keck said in a statement. "We want to ensure the safety of our employees and customers and conducting these tests is part of doing that."

Man Sentenced to Five Years

(AP) - A man who stole a patrol car in Vancouver and led deputies on a 30-minute chase has been sentenced to five years in prison.

Superior Court Judge James Rulli on Monday handed down the longest sentence possible to James Clyde Shields.

In July, Shields was arrested for possessing methamphetamine and driving with a suspended license. He was released on bail and told to appear in court Aug. 2. He didn't, and a felony warrant was issued for his arrest.

Shields, 35, was picked up on the warrant Aug. 26, placed in the back of a Clark County Sheriff's Office patrol car and left unattended. He wriggled his cuffed hands from behind his back, bent a metal screen separating the back seat from the front seat and slipped into the driver's seat.

He led police on a chase that exceeded speeds of 100 mph and ended in a minor crash on Interstate 5.

On Oct. 11, he pleaded guilty to theft, escape and attempting to elude police.

Collision Results in Manslaughter

(AP) — A 45-year-old man is charged with manslaughter in connection with a traffic accident that killed a Gresham woman.

Mary Margaret Ewing, 44, died Nov. 19 when her car was struck in an intersection on Southeast Stark.

Gresham police say Ewing was northbound in the left turn lane on a green light when an eastbound car struck her. The collision propelled her car into two others.

The driver of the eastbound vehicle, Joe Dudley Hughes, suffered critical injuries in the wreck. The drivers of the other two cars had minor injuries.

Hughes is under guard on charges of manslaughter, driving under the influence of intoxicants and for violating felony D-U-I-I probation.