City-Wide Worship Stresses Awareness of HIV/AIDS

On Sunday, March 3 at 6 p.m., clergy, lay persons and community partners from the African American community will gather at Allen Temple CME Church, 4236 N.E. Eighth Ave., in observance of the first annual Balm In Gilead: healing Through Prayer Worship Service.

This interfaith worship service will celebrate the lives of those individuals who have been impacted by an HIV/AIDS diagnosis, as well as offer a spiritual platform to educate and inform the African American community about HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmitted diseases.

Representatives from various faith groups, intervention and educational organizations have been invited to participate in this event. An information fair will be held in the lower level of the church.

Memorial Pays Tribute to Couple

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m., Saturday, March 2, 2002, at Mt. Olivet Baptist Church in Portland for Ulysses and Beatrice Leverett.

Both were long-time residents of Portland who moved to Torrance, Calif. during the latter part of 2001 to be with their daughters.

Ulysses died Jan. 1, 2002 and Beatrice died Jan. 12, 2002 in Torrance. Funeral services for both were held at Christ Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church in Long Beach, Calif. They were both faithful long-time members of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church.

Ulysses was born in Morilton, Ark. on Feb. 14, 1912. He moved to Portland in 1942. He retired in 1975 after over 30 years of service with Montgomery Ward.

He served as Vice President of the Portland Chapter of the NAACP, was a member of Billy Webb Lodge 1050 of the Elks, the Royal Esquire Club of Oregon and the Oregon-Washington Football Club. He also enjoyed playing bridge and was instrumental in the establishment of a chapter of the American Bridge Association in Portland.

Beatrice was born July 10, 1913, in Wampoo, Ark. She was a member of the Urban League Guild, Les Femmes Social Club, the NAACP, Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Oregon-Washington Football Club, Royal Bridge Club and was a charter member of Jack and Jill of America.

She worked for over 30 years as a librarian for Multnomah County.

They were preceded in death by their son, Ronald Henry Leverett and baby daughter, Leverett. They leave to cherish their memories, two daughters, Rosalind Leverett Dixon and Brenda Leverett Ford of Torrance; her brother, Hubert Smith of Los Angeles; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Itrie Golden

Itrie Golden died Feb. 16, 2002, at age 83. She was born Nov. 27, 1918, in Louisiana to Ardella and Mason Clark, one of four children and the only girl.

She moved to Portland in 1944 and was a homemaker. In 1932, she married Fred Golden; he died in 1997.

Survivors include her sons, George E., James E. and Dwight K.; daughters, Freddie S. Cole, Brenda F. Golden and Debra D. Knapper; eight grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Itrie inspired strength, courage and laughter amongst all that knew her. She will always be remembered as an extremely caring and giving wife, mother, grandmother, aunt and friend.

At her request there will be no funeral or memorial. She will be cremated and her remains interred with her husband, "Itrie and Fred Together Forever. We love you once, we love you twice."
