Parade, Carnival to Celebrate Juneteenth

A parade along Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard and a carnival with live music is planned for the annual Juneteenth Festival, June 19-23.

Juneteenth is celebrated across the country in tribute to the teen days in June, decades ago when many African Americans first learned of President Lincoln's proclamation ending slavery.

Locally, the House of Exodus is accepting booth space for the festival, which will be centered at Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard and Portland Boulevard. For information, contact Woody Broadnax at 503-449-3685 or 503-285-8898.

The parade will be held June 22 at 1 p.m. starting at Northeast Broadway and proceeding up King to Highland Street.

The carnival promises fun for all ages; with live bands, soloists and choirs scheduled to perform. Food vendors will feature African, American, Mexican, Asian and Ethiopian cuisine.

Holy Convocation at Area Churches

Everyone is invited to attend the Church of God in Christ's Northwest Jurisdiction's 40th annual State Holy Convocation, June 10-16 at Freedom of Assembly Church of God in Christ, 936 N. Beech and the Highland United Church of Christ at Northeast 18th and Alberta. Special services will feature evangelist Leon Brewer, Bishop Frank Walker, Bishop P.A. Brooks, Bishop W.G. Hardy Sr. and Mother Elizabeth Jackson. A musical extravaganza is also planned.

For more information, call Velma Jones at 503-281-3229.

Bible College Celebrates Achievement

Area residents are cordially invited to come and enjoy the Celebration of Achievement of North Portland Bible College, Friday, June 7 at 7 p.m. at North Community Church, 7412 N. Mississippi Ave., just south of Lombard.

Special music, student participation, and an address by Rev. Mark Strong will highlight the celebration. Students who have completed sequences of study or who have earned certificates will be honored.

Maxine Ghant-Irving, who attended the college in its first year of 1982 will be the guest soloist.

For more information, contact Beth Nancy at 503-287-0885
