

A Christmas wish list was answered at the Northeast Multicultural Senior Center Monday when Homestead Capital answered Christmas wishes from 46 area residents. The company and its employees presented two gift-wrapped presents to each senior, and presented the center with a new big screen TV, a VCR/DVD player and a computer.

Wishes do Come True

Santa and his helpers distribute gifts to area residents at the Northeast Multicultural Senior Center on Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard on Monday. The presents were made possible by a generous donation from Homestead Capital.

Ho! Ho! Ho! Red is the hottest color for holiday hair

Mrs. and Ms. Claus can have hair to match Santa's suit thanks to Textures and Tones, a hair color brand created by Clairol specifically for women of color. The new line includes a full six shades of red in its collection: Red Hot Red, Ruby Rage, Blazing Burgundy, Flaming Desire, Cherrywood and Plum. Clairol Color Master Kim Whitehurst said that while red hair color has always been a dramatic fashion statement for African American women, this season's shades will be turning 'Ho! Ho! Ho!' into 'Oh! Oh! Oh!'

A Clairol model shows off one of the hot red shades by Textures and Tones, a new line of hair color designed for women of color.
