SUNLAN & The Light Bulb Lady

BEMY VALENTINE AND GIVE ME SUNSHINE

I walk in to my house, turn on all the lights and still cannot make it bright enough to chase a way the winter blues. How come?

THE RIGHT LIGHT TO CHASE THE WINTER BLUES

Is a light that is very close to the light nature created. Early man lived by light, sun up - go to work, Sundown-go to sleep. Today, we are expected to work before sunrise and after sunset we are home doing the family thing. We go from one dark cave to another.

Our lights let us see what we are doing but do not provide Sunlight. Sunlan has several sun like lights in the play room to help Light up your life. More next month...

Super Senior

Edna Adams-Bates is still sharp at 100 years

Family members say Edna Adams-Bates, who celebrated her 100th birthday on Jan. 3, is still very active, kind and sweet - even though she is a century old. A native of San Bernadino, Calif., Adams-Bates lived and worked in Hollywood until she was 85 years old. During that time she came into contact with many famous celebrities, but the stars of the northwestern sky shined brighter and five years ago she moved to Portland. She maintained her own home until she was 97-years-old when her grandchildren decided they didn't like the idea of her living alone. Family members said she is the kind of grandmother everyone would like to have.

Church Offers Lecture on Islam
Expert to dispel popular stereotypes about Muslims

Seyyed Hossein Nasr, one of the world's leading experts on Islamic philosophy and spirituality and one of the best interpreters of Islam to the West, will give a lecture at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral on Friday, Feb. 7 at 7:30 p.m., entitled "The Dimensions of Islam."

Professor Nasr will explore what the majority of the world's 1.2 billion Muslims, the fastest growing religious group, really believe and value.

Drawing from his most recent book, "The Heart of Islam: Enduring Values for Humanity," Nasr will offer a much needed corrective to the misinformation and stereotypes about a religious tradition that continues to shape current events and headlines.

In addition to his Friday night lecture, Professor Nasr will give a Saturday seminar entitled, 'Islam and the Abrahamic Tradition of Monotheism.' Nasr will explore the parallels to Islamic values in Judaism and Christianity providing an ethical foundation for rapprochement amongst the Abrahamic traditions. The lecture takes place at Trinity Cathedral while the Saturday seminar will take place in Kempton Hall of Trinity Cathedral. For ticket information call 503-478-1218.

Vlazny, Archbishop of Portland, will be the celebrant and the homilist for the Mass.

This will be the first MLK Mass at the cathedral. The annual event had rotated between Holy Redeemer, Immaculate Heart and St. Andrew Catholic churches in north and northeast Portland since 1988.

The combined gospel choirs of Immaculate Heart and St. Andrew Churches will provide the music for this year's celebration.
