Tyson Makes Quick Work; Harding Loses

Tonya Harding lands on the mat in her pro boxing debut.

Former heavyweight champion Mike Tyson hits Clifford Etienne with a knockout punch 49 seconds into the first round.

(AP) - There is still some badness left in Iron Mike after all.

In desperate need of a devastating win, Mike Tyson got just that Saturday night, flattening Clifford Etienne with a savage right hand reminiscent of Tyson in his prime.

Etienne was knocked flat on his back in the middle of the ring and he lay there as referee Bill Clancy counted him out only 49 seconds into the scheduled 10-round fight.

It was the 16th knockout in the first 1:33 of the first round or less for Tyson and his sixth quickest ever. He needed it badly to salvage his chances of a rematch with Lewis or a possible third fight with Evander Holyfield.

"To be honest I'm not ready to fight him (Lewis) at this time," Tyson said. "I need more fights. I don't want to get beat up again."

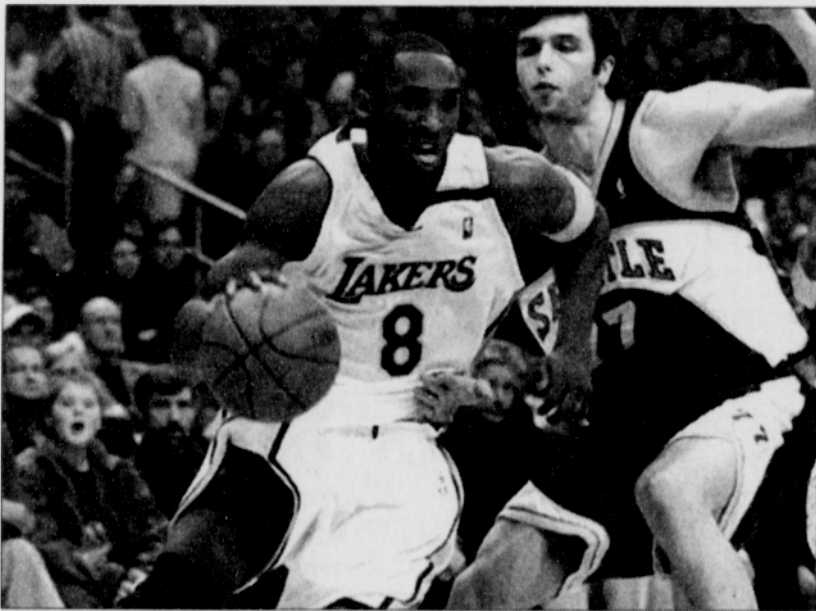

If the fight card before Tyson and Etienne entered the ring, Tonya Harding made her pro debut against another novice fighter, Samantha Browning, of Mantachie, Miss.

The two women spent four rounds flailing at each other in a comical display before Browning was given a split decision over the banned former Olympic skater.

"This was much, much harder than I ever figured," Harding said.

Padres Schedule Game in Portland

The Portland Beavers announced that they will host the San Diego Padres, their major league affiliate, in a spring game at PGE Park just a few days before the beginning of the 2003 regular season.

The Triple-A Beavers will face off against San Diego at PGE Park Friday, March 28.

"This is a great way to kick off our exciting season of events at PGE Park," said Mark Schuster, president and general manager of the Beavers.

Tickets for the Padres-Beavers game go on sale at PGE Park on Saturday, March 8. On that date, tickets will be made available at select Portland-area Ticketmaster outlets also, including select Fred Meyer and G.I. Joe's locations. Payton's Seattle Era Ends With Trade (AP)—Gary Payton and George Karl are ready to overlook their tempestuous past for another shot at an NBA title.

Seattle traded the 34-year-old Payton to the Milwaukee Bucks in a five-player deal Thursday, reuniting the nine-time All-Star point guard with the former SuperSonics coach.

"We went at each other," Karl said. "But I think Gary and I have both mellowed. The league has gotten softer and both of us have matured."

In 1996, Payton and Karl led Seattle to a franchise-record 64 victories and a NBA Finals spot, where the Sonics lost to Michael Jordan and the Chicago Bulls in six games.

"He likes playing for George," said Payton's agent, Aaron Goodwin.

The Sonics sent 6-foot-5 swingman Desmond Mason to the Bucks and also received guards Kevin Ollie and Ronald Murray and a conditional first-round draft pick. The trade ended Payton's career in Seattle after 12 1/2 seasons and 999 games.

The former Oregon State guard was averaging 20.8 points and 8.8 assists for the SuperSonics, who have dropped out of the playoff race in the Western Conference after a promising start.
