Buzzer Beater Sinks Jefferson

Democrats suffer first round tourney loss

Jefferson High School suffered a shocking loss in the first game of the first round of the OSAA/U.S. Bank/Les Schwab 4A state boys basketball championship Tuesday afternoon at Memorial Coliseum.

South Medford scored a 3-point basket off the glass as time ran out to win the game, 53-52.

The contest was close much of the way with the score tied 26 all at halftime. The Democrats led by 4 points after three quarters, but Medford came out strong in the fourth opening the period with an 8-2 scoring run.

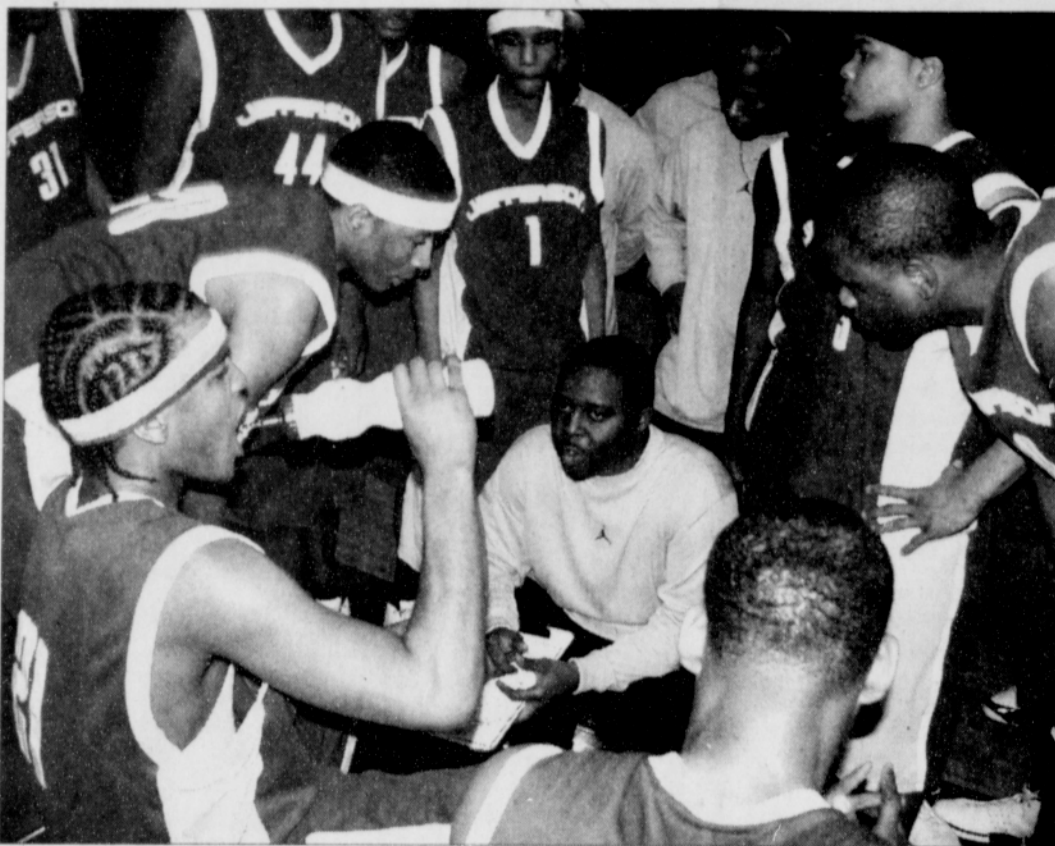

A large contingent of Jefferson fans attended the 1:30 p.m. contest.

Lincoln High School, the Portland Interscholastic League's other entry in the tournament, will face Southridge of Beaverton on Wednesday.

Lincoln is considered as good a bet as anyone to win the championship.

The team has a 20-and-4 record, a number two ranking and a 16-game winning streak.

ons for the first time since 1964. Lincoln last won the state crown in 1957.

In girls 4A play, the Oregon City

Pioneers won its third consecutive championship Saturday with a 77-49 victory over Jesuit at the University of Portland Chiles Center.

Bonzi Wells

Bonzi Wells Suspended by Team

(AP) — Portland Trail Blazers forward Bonzi Wells was suspended for a game by coach Maurice Cheeks for "conduct considered detrimental to the team."

Wells was suspended for Tuesday night's game against the SuperSonics in Seattle. The team did not specify the reasons for the suspension.

Wells is second on the team in scoring, averaging 15.6 points and 5.4 rebounds.

In his fourth year, Wells has been suspended twice by the NBA this season.

In November he served a one-game suspension for spitting on San Antonio's Danny Ferry. The next month, he was suspended two games for his part in a post-game brawl with the Golden State Warriors in Oakland.
