Show for kids five and up

Tears of Joy Theatre will be showing "Rumpelstiltskin," a favorite Grimm fairy tale, at the Royal Durst Theatre in Vancouver and the Dolores Winningstad Theatre in Portland from Nov. 14 through 30. The show features a cast of extraordinary puppet characters such as Papa and Fritz the Dog (left), Lola and her baby, and of course the nefarious Rumpelstiltskin himself (far right). For more information, call 360-695-0477 or 503-248-0557. The show is perfect for kids aged five and up.

Date Set for Coastal Rhythm & Blues

Paul deLay is considered a top songwriter and blues harmonica player.

Patrick Lamb is a celebrated musician in the R&B sphere.

The Fourth Annual Coastal R & B concert descends on Chinook Winds Casino for a dance party on Saturday, Oct. 18. Famed northwest performers Patrick Lamb and Paul deLay will join Mel Brown, a first time performer at the casino.

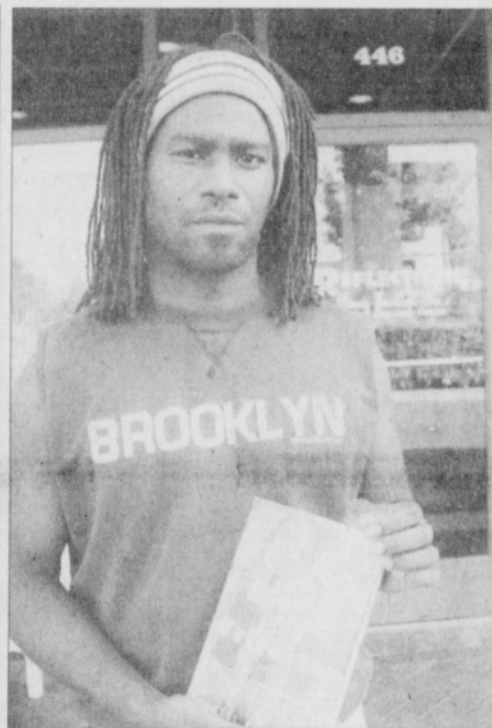

The concert closes with a grand finale Master Jam Session.

The Patrick Lamb Band has performed with artists such as George Benson, B.B. King, Kenny G. Wynton and Bradford Marsalis and has performed at the White House.

Paul deLay, considered one of the finest blues harmonica players and singer-songwriters to be found, and his band, are well known in blues circles across the nation.

Mel Brown, sitting behind his set of Allegra drums, is noted for his work with The Supremes, The Temptations, Diana Ross, Martha and the Vandellas, and numerous jazz musicians.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are $15. For more information or for tickets, call 1-888-MAIN-ACT

Author Promotes 'Ghetto Celebrity'

Los Angeles-based author and reporter Donnell Alexander visits Reflections Bookstore at 446 N.E. Killingsworth to promote his book about the real-life ghetto celebrity in his family. His memoir, "Ghetto Celebrity" describes his relationship with his father, a locally known R&B musician turned pimp and dealer in the ghettos of Sandusky, Ohio. Donnell recently completed a seven-city tour, meeting many young readers that said his book was the first they read cover-to-cover. For more information, visit www.ghettocelebrity.com.

Floetry, Elliott Top 'Lady of Soul' Awards

(AP) — Neo-soul duo Floetry, rapper Missy "Misdemeanor" Elliot and singer Heather Headley took home the most awards at the 2003 Soul Train Lady of Soul Awards.

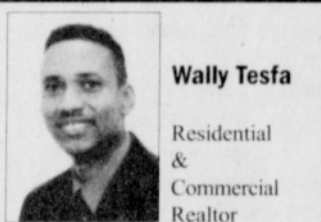

Floetry was honored for best single by a group, "Say Yes," and best album by a group for their "Floetic," as well as best new group.

Elliott won twice, in best song of the year and best music video for the raunchy "Work It."

Headley's "He Is" won her honors as best new solo artist, and her album "This is Who I Am" was named the best solo effort of the year.

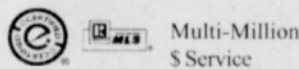

Other winners included Dorinda Clark-Cole for best gospel album and Erykah Badu for solo single with "Love of my Life."

Badu also took home the 2003 Aretha Franklin "Entertainer of the Year" award, and Vivica A. Fox was chosen for the 2003 Lena Horne Award honoring career achievement.
