Retter to the Editor

Opinion articles do not necessarily reflect or represent the views of The Portland Observer

Backing Up the Chief

the position of Portland Police Chief. never having had an African-I feel that he has the ability and American Queen of Rosaria. We qualifications. I sincerely hope that did get our first queen, the first in Portland, the Mayor and the City Council respect him and let him lead instead of handcuffing him as a figurehead.

He was brought into this position among the criticism and controversy surrounding the killing of a young black mother, Kendra James by Scott McCollister. This death brought about a lot of pain realized, so the controversy goes and a complete distrust with a lot of on and on. us in the African-American community. There has been a lot of killing in the black community by police that always wind up with the same verdict, not guilty on the part of the police. However, the outcome has always been predictable, with little outcry from the community, but not this time. The ministers and the city as a whole wanted to dig deeper.

Portland has always tried to who will serve the whole city. avoid controversy when we rise up to dispute unfair treatment. The

I would like to congratulate Chief school district was facing a lot of Derrick Foxworth's appointment to heat over unfair desegregation and the history of this state.

We also had the first black superintendent after they fired Dr. Blanchard. Once again we quieted down somewhat, even though nothing was really accomplished. We got the school and program changed but the achievement that we had hoped for has never been

I have seen all of these strategies over the years and we quiet down. The figurehead that has been used to quiet the division soon loses that position. I am only looking at the history for the past 40 plus years of this city's politics.

I hope the Mayor will look at Chief Foxworth with dignity and respect and as a police chief who can have a wonderful future and

Vesia Loving North Portland

Students at the Cascade Campus of Portland Community College in north Portland are learning in brand new science labs and new classrooms at the newly expanded Jackson Hall. PCC added 17,700 square feet to the facility named after the late Rev. John Jackson.

Jackson Hall Expansion Celebrated

Dean Ollee returns for open house

Portland Community College will celebrate the addition and remodeling of Jackson Hall in an open house and tours on Wednesday, Oct. 29 from 4 to 6 p.m., 705 N. Killingsworth St. There will be a brief program at 4:30 p.m.

Mildred Ollee, former executive Portland, made possible through a fall of 1985 with the Rev. John H. dean of the Cascade Campus, who $144 million bond passed in Nolast month assumed the presidency vember 2000. The Cascade Campus of Seattle Central Community Col- will see $57 million in improvements lege, will return to the school as a over the next several years. featured speaker during the cel-

Jackson Hall marks the start of a total of eight labs. It also adds significant educational investment four by PCC to north and northeast The building first opened in the

The $6.2 million addition and remodel of Jackson Hall adds six Church in northeast Portland, to The opening of the addition to new science laboratories, for a new classrooms.

Jackson performing the ceremonial ribbon cutting. The PCC Board named the building after the late Rev. Jackson, who was pastor of Mt. Olivet Baptist honor his commitment to the community, to education and to opportunities for African American

15-1 Student-Teacher Ratio

> State-Standard Curriculum

Just Regular Kids Who Are Willing to Learn

Free Public School - No Tuition

Accepting 6th Grade Transfer Students Today!

Taking Applications for Next Year 6th & 7th Grade Students

VICTORY MIDDLE SCHOOL

at the Blazers Boys and Girls Club

5250 NE MLK

503-789-9099

Civil Rights Leader to Speak at UO

U.S. Rep. John Lewis, D-Ga., the youngest speaker at the 1963 March on Washington and a longtime key figure in the U.S. civil rights movement, will deliver a presidential lecture on "Peace, Social Change and Justice" on Monday, Nov. 10 at the University of Oregon, Erb Memorial Union Ballroom, 1222 E. 13th Ave., Eugene.

Lewis has been at the vanguard of progressive social causes and human rights struggles. As a Fisk University student, he organized sit-ins at segregated lunch counters around Nashville. In 1961, he participated in the Freedom Rides, organized to challenge segregation at bus terminals throughout the South and was beaten severely by mobs.

John Lewis

From 1963-66, Lewis chaired the Student Nonviolent Coordinating rageous leaders of the civil rights Committee, which he earlier had helped create. SNCC was responsible for much of the civil disobedi- Council in 1981, Lewis served until ence that drew national attention to 1986, when he mounted a sucthe civil rights movement. Among the most prominent of those events was a march over the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, Ala., organized by Lewis and Hosea Williams. More than 600 activists participated, and many were attacked by state troopers in a confrontation that became known as "Bloody Sunday." The march was a catalyst for the landmark Voting Rights Act of 1965. A contemporary and associate of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., Lewis was regarded as one of the most cou-

Elected to the Atlanta City cessful bid to represent Georgia's 5th Congressional District.

For more information about the lecture, call 541-346-3036.

National College Fair Coming

High school students can get their questions about applying to college, answered at the free Portland National College Fair on Friday, Nov 7 and Saturday, Nov 8 from 9 am to 1 pm at the Oregon Convention Center.

Representatives from over 240 colleges and universities nationwide will be available to answer questions. Information sessions on college planning, applying for financial aid, scholarships, essay writing and using technology will also be offered both days.

This event is sponsored by the National Association for College Admission Counseling. For more information contact Joe Bernard at 503-520-4713 or visit www.nacac.com.

ALL LIMITS ARE PER HOUSEHOLD PER DAY!

The Portland Observer

USPS 959-680

Established 1970

4747 NE Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd., Portland, OR 97211

Charles H. Washington Michael Leighton

Mark Washington

CREATIVE DIRECTOR Paul Neufeldt

Kathy Linder

EPORTER

Jaymee R. Cuti POSTMASTER: Send address changes to Portland Observer PO Box 3137, Portland, OR 97208

Periodical Postage paid in Portland, OR . Subscriptions are $60.00 per year 503-288-0033 • FAX 503-288-0015 • EMAIL: news@portlandobserver.com subscription@portlandobserver.com ads@portlandobserver.com The Portland Observer welcomes freelance submissions. Manuscripts and photographs should be clearly labeled and will be returned if accompanied by a self addressed envelope. All created design display ads become the sole property of the newspaper and cannot be used in other publications or personal usage without the written consent of the general manager, unless the client has purchased the composition of such ad. © 1996 THE PORTLAND OBSERVER. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED, REPRODUCTION IN WHOLE OR IN PART WITHOUT PERMISSION IS PROHIBITED.

The Portland Observer--Oregon's Oldest Multicultural Publication--is a member of the National Newspaper Association--Founded in 1885, and The National Advertising Representative Amalgamated Publishers, Inc, New York, NY, and The West Coast Black Publishers Association • Serving Portland and Vancouver.

