Halle Berry continues business relationship with Revlon.

Halle Berry Renews Revlon Contract

(AP)—Actress Halle Berry will continue her contract to appear as a spokeswoman for Revlon Inc., the company said.

The Oscar-winning actress recently finished an advertising campaign for the New York-based Revlon's summer 2004 collection.

"We are delighted that Halle will continue to be an important part of the Revlon brand," Executive Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer Stephanie Klein Peponis said in a statement.

The Cleveland native won an Academy Award for best actress for her role in the 2001 movie "Monster's Ball" and appeared in the James Bond movie "Die Another Day," among other films.

Other Revlon spokeswomen include Julianne Moore, Jaime King, Karen Duffy and Eva Mendes.

Joey DeFrancesco will jam at Portland's Jimmy Mak's.

Jazz Organist at Jimmy Mak's

The world's baddest jazz organist, Joey DeFrancesco, performs at Jimmy Mak's, 300 N.W. 10th Ave., at 9 p.m. Dec. 19 and 20.

This wonderkid turned legend didn't simply catch his break when he performed with Miles Davis as a teenager; the organist has patterned his career after the trumpeter's example of constantly pushing the creative envelope and bringing together new and disparate cohorts.

Tickets are $20, available by calling 503-295-6542.

Aretha Demands Respect from Tabloid

(AP) — Aretha Franklin and the Star are sitting down to discuss settlement of the soul superstar's lawsuit against the super-market tabloid.

Last year, Franklin sued the Star and its parent company, American Media Inc., over an article that alleged she had a drinking problem.

Barry Langberg, Franklin's Los Angeles lawyer, has said everything in the article published in March 2000 was false.

Aretha Franklin is best known
