POSITION AVAILABLE

PRESIDENT

St. Andrew Nativity School is seeking a dynamic and committed lay or religious Catholic leader for the position of President. In this capacity, the successful candidate will work at maintaining and strengthening the Roman Catholic and Jesuit character of the school, as well as represent that character to various constituencies in the Portland civic, educational, and religious communities.

The President of St. Andrew Nativity School is the CEO of the institution, accountable to the Board of Trustees, responsible for the educational vision, programs, and financial viability of the school. The President will work closely with the Trustees in the ongoing formation of the school community in its understanding of the Jesuit vision of education, will work closely with the Principal in the formulation and maintenance of the school's educational programs, and will oversee the financial development necessary to the school's continued success.

As well as being an active and committed Catholic, the successful candidate will be an experienced educator and administrator, have a Master's degree, have a solid understanding of Jesuit education, and have experience working with students from low-income families.

St. Andrew Nativity School is a tuition-free middle school serving exclusively students who qualify for the Free and Reduced Price Lunch Program. The school opened its doors in 2001. It is now at capacity with 64 students in grades 6, 7, 8. St. Andrew Nativity School accepts students from all faith backgrounds and ethnic groups. Most of its current students are people of color.

St. Andrew Nativity is an equal opportunity employer and is actively seeking a diverse applicant pool for this exciting position.
