Shout Out of Thanks

The Church of God in Christ is sending a sincere thank you to all those who provided financial support in sending 56 area residents to a recent National Auxiliary Conference in southern California.

The group attended workshops on youth ministry, Sunday school, evangelism, world missions and music.

"This will always be a point of reference for the young people," said Fredrick Woods, president of the local church's Oregon's Youth Department.

"In October of 2003 this was just a vision and at times during our fundraising efforts it appeared impossible. Through our faith in God, corporate prayer, fundraising and the great response we received from the community who believed in what the youth were trying to do the vision became a reality," Woods said.

Business and organization sponsors included Portland Bottling, House of Umoja, New Hope Community Church, New Life Church of God in Christ, Boy Scouts of America, Albina Fuel, Killingsworth Little Chapel of the
