

I decided early to give my life to something eternal and absolute. Not to these little gods that are here today and gone tomorrow, but to God who is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

— Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. from "Rediscovering Lost Values," Feb. 28, 1954

ASSISTED LIVING in the neighborhood you call

Home

ENJOY YOUR INDEPENDENCE.
TAKE COMFORT IN OUR CARE

It's easy to call Irvington Village home. We're an assisted living residence right in your neighborhood, less than 20 minutes from everything you love about Northeast Portland—sporting events, concerts, Museums and more.

Lively Alberta Street is just four blocks from our building. Shop, visit with friends and family, eat at your favorite restaurant. When you live at Irvington Village. You are still part of the extraordinary community we call home.

At Irvington Village you live your life your way, without the responsibilities and chores of home ownership. Our staff is caring and supportive. We make sure you have the assistance you need so your family can enjoy being with you instead of taking care of you.

- ❖ Enjoy our new residence. Read in our cozy library. Throw a party in the community room. Visit family in the courtyard while the grand-children play in the neighboring playground.
- ❖ Enjoy our friendship. Share delicious home-cooked meals. Participate in musical programming. Cheer on your favorite team with fellow fans. Take up a new hobby.
- ❖ Take comfort in knowing you made sure you have the care you need.

There can be no deep disappointment where there is not deep love.

For every Portland police officer, there is a story...

My story...
Captain Dorothy Elmore,

"I began my career here in law enforcement as I was preparing for a course of study in law. I have always held a strong determination to focus my career on upholding and improving equality in all aspects of life. I discovered right away that law enforcement was an excellent path for pursuing this goal."
