For Every Girl

continued A from Front

who are willing to invest in the aspect of the activity. girls," said Keeley.

Girl Scouts is about so much more than selling cookies and macaroni art, says Evers.

"We have to provide different opportunities to interest every girl. Some girls like to sing songs and do arts and crafts and some girls want to go rock climbing and deep sea diving. We have to plan events for every girl, keeping in mind the ideals of Girl Scouts like career development, leadership, goal setting and character building," Evers said.

The Columbia River Council takes that challenge seriously by crafting unique activities that place girls from the ages of five to 17 in positions to lead, develop character and grow up to be successful women.

Activities have come a long way from popsicle construction and glitter glue decorating. Today's Girl Scouts plan their own activities based on their topwith all different skills, who are ics of interest. That can range ethnically diverse and of differ- from learning self defense to deent socioeconomic status, who signing Web sites to cooking to speak different languages. We race dialogue to nutrition to campneed to pull these people together ing trips, where girls plan every

> For more information and to get involved, call 503-620-4567.

> > Girl Scouts in the Portland metropolitan area are guided by a multicultural staff that includes Samantha Keeley (from left), Anita Jo Noble, Shannon Evers and La Shanda Hurst.

> > > PHOTO BY MARK WASHINGTON/ THE PORTLAND OBSERVER

PHOTO BY MARK WASHINGTON/THE PORTLAND OBSERVER

Dig Extended for Chinese Remains

Archaeologists are excavating a parking lot next to the Lone Fir Cemetery at Southeast 20th and Morrison Street to determine whether any remains of Chinese immigrants were left behind more than half a century ago. Archaeologists are trying to confirm what the Chinese community has long believed — that bodies of women and children were left under the asphalt. So fall crews have unearthed handles to caskets, shards of Chinese pottery and fragments of grave markers, but no human remains have been found.

New Verdict Frees Black Journalist

Freedom follows 44 years behind bars

(AP)—He's a man of contradictions, an honor student turned dropout who at 19 saw bank robbery as his only way out of poverty. A confessed killer who reawakened turned himself into an award-winning journalist.

Access scholarships are available with downloadable applications on

The applications are due by Feb.

1 by 5 p.m. at the Black United Fund's office, 2828 N.E. Alberta St.

time $1,500 Ron Herndon schol-

The organization has five one-

website

fund's

www.bufor.org.

ing his release for time already Oscar.

stabbing teller Julia Ferguson to death. He never denied the crime jury but did not give details until his his mind in a brutal prison and latest trial, when he said it was a result of panic.

Now Wilbert Rideau is a free man award-winning National Public ra-ter, allowing his release for the years after nearly 44 years behind bars - diodocumentary. He directed "The he already had served.

Black United Fund has Scholarships

offers five one-time $1,500 schol-

Black United Fund of Oregon accredited college or university.

because his fourth trial ended in a Farm," which won the 1998 docuconviction, but this time of man-mentary prize at the Sundance Film slaughter instead of murder, allow- Festival and was nominated for an

He was turned down for parole On Feb. 16, 1961, he held up a again and again, but in 2000 a fedbank and took three employees eral appeals overturned his third hostage, shooting them all and conviction because black people were excluded from the 1961 grand

A new grand jury reindicted him in July 2001, and on Saturday seven whites and five blacks convicted Rideau wrote and narrated an himofalesserchargeofmanslaugh-

The Access program also will

new partnership with The Catlin

Gabel School. There will be two full

For more information call or

email

503-282-7973

In addition, Portland State Uni- hold two information sessions to versity, in partnership with BUF, orient African-American families to University of Portland, in part-scholarships for two entering freshnership with BUF, offers three up to man to The Catlin Gabel Upper

LIVE MUSIC Again! @ BILLY REED'S RESTAURANT & BAR

2808 NE MLK 503-493-8127 www.billyreeds.com Watch for more coming dates Lets Do it again!

Fairly Honest Jon Wed 1/19/05 $3 cover

DJ Chata Man

Jay Pervis Fri 1/21/05 $3 cover

Kirk Green Sat 1/22/05 $3 cover

Kenney Polson Jazz. Sun 1/23/05 $3 cover

Caldwell's Colonial Chapel

20 N.E. 14th Avenue Portland, Oregon 97232 (503) 232-4111

The Pre-arrangement Concept

Dear Family Member:

Denyse O. Peterson

Denyse Peterson represents funeral homes and cemeteries in the Portland Metropolitan area. Many families have a difficult time getting through all the associated decisions, questions, grief and financial responsibilities that follow when a loved one dies. Denyse's responsibility is to provide information. Pre-arranging lessens the burden before the time of death with challenges such as emotional overspending, indecision, haste and worry.

Our personal planning guide can be a great benefit to loved ones. Overall, prearranging will benefit families tremendously.

The pre-arrangement Dignity Memorial providers are honored to help families in our community with your funeral and burial needs.

Representing these fine funeral homes:

- Caldwell's Colonial Chapel
- · Lincoln Memorial Park & Funeral Home
- Sunnyside Chapel & Memorial Gardens
- · Gateway Little Chapel of the Chimes
- Hennessey, Goetsch & McGee Funeral Directors Lincoln-Willamette Funeral Directors
- Killingsworth Little Chapel of the Chimes
- · Ross Hollywood Chapel
- · Skyline Memorial Gardens & Funeral Home

For more information or to schedule an appointment, please call Denyse Peterson at (503) 232-4111.

arships that can be used at any renewable scholarships. kpowell@bufor.org. PCC Financial Joyce Washington

Willamette University, in partnership with BUF, offers two $15,000

$12,000 renewable scholarships and School.

Aid Day Portland Community College is holding Financial Aid Day at the north Portland Cascade Campus on Saturday, Jan. 22 from 9 a.m. to PCC advisors will provide personalized assistance to future college students with completion of federal student aid forms. This event is open to prospective students, including high school seniors.

Students are urged to come early to ensure adequate time to complete the online application.

For more information, call 503-978-5282, or 503-978-5291.

January 23, 1937 March 15, 1996

In loving memory on your birthday and for the legacy you left for the Portland Observer

