Obituary
Portland Woman Broke Barriers

Funeral arrangements for Harrie Bell Cross-Paris, a long time Portland resident who died at the age of 87, are under the direction of Cox and Cox Funeral Home.

She was born Nov. 1, 1917 in Dekalb, Texas, the daughter of Mirara Lou Johnson and Will Thurman. She attended school in Beaumont, Texas, where she also accepted Christ as her personal savior and was baptized at an early age.

She moved to Portland in 1935, to join her brother, Willie Thurman. She later met and married William Cross; he died in 1959. From this union, one son, Abdul Halim Raahsan, formerly known as William Earle Cross, was born. She met and married John Paris in 1967.

During the World War II era, Harrie Bell became the first of two African American women to be employed with the Lippman Wolfe Department Store in Portland. She was also among the first group of women to be employed with the Portland Ship Repair Yard during this same era. Later she went on to work for Lewis and Clark College where she became Lead Supervisor of House-keeping Services for 25 years. She retired in 1984. She was also a very successful Avon Representative for over 40 years.

She joined the Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, under the pastorate of the late Rev. James S. Clow, where she remained a faithful member for more than 60 years. She was also active in her community, being a member of the NAACP, Texas Social Club, Oklahoma Social Club, Former President of the Northwest Region of the National Council of Negro Women, Altruistic Club, Delta Mother's Club, Birthday Club and Oasis Club.

She was also preceded in death by her four brothers, Willie, George, Charlie and Harry.

Cherishing her loving memory are her husband and son; nine grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; one great-great grandchild; and host of nieces, nephews, cousins, neighbors and devoted friends.
