PSU Hires New Assistants

New Portland State Basketball Coach Ken Bone has added a pair of assistant coaches to his staff as they prepare for the 2005-06 season.

Bone has hired Tyler Geving and Yasir Rosemond, both of whom have ties to the Northwest.

Geving worked most recently as co-Head Coach at Edmonds Community College, while Rosemond was an assistant coach the past two seasons at Redlands Community College.

Portland State is coming off a 19-9 season, its most wins ever as a Division I program. PSU also won its first-ever Big Sky Conference regular season title (11-3) in 2004-05. The Vikings returns seven players, including two starters, and two redshirts for 2005-06. Four student-athletes have signed letters of intent for the coming year.
