

Issa, Anita and Ruth Pointer of The Pointer Sisters.

Pointer Sisters to Perform Hits

Sassy divas at Chinook Winds

The Pointer Sisters are heading to Lincoln City Friday, Nov. 18 and Saturday, Nov. 19.

for 8 p.m. performances live on stage at Chinook Winds Casino Resort.

These sassy divas have consistently produced top 10 singles since their first album in 1974 was certified gold.

Hit songs like "Jump (for my love)," "I'm So Excited," "Neutron Dance," "Slow Hand," and "Fire" have earned The Pointer Sisters induction in the Soul Train Hall of Fame and a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

Ruth, Anita and Issa Pointer still today maintain a busy touring scheduled and perform all over the world. Although June Pointer left the act to perform on her own, the energy and style of The Pointer Sisters is as electric as ever with the addition of Ruth's daughter Issa who began singing with the group back in 1985 as a 7 year old. She's all grown up now and has the vocal chords to prove it.

Tickets for The Pointer Sisters range from $20 to $40. For more information, call 1-888-624-6228 or TicketsWest at 1-800-992-8499.

Chinook Winds in Lincoln City is owned and operated by the Confederated Tribes of the Siletz Indians.

Jamie Foxx Tough On Recruits

Oscar winner Jamie Foxx gives an exceptional performance as Staff Sergeant Sykes in "Jarhead," the new major motion picture based on Anthony Swofford's New York best selling novel of the same name, opening nationwide Friday. The film also stars Jake Gyllenhaal and Peter Sarsgaard as young marine recruits.
