Oslund Dance Company Performs

In a combination of new and repertory works, the Oslund Dance Company will perform three 8 p.m. performances the weekend of Nov. 11-13 at the Wonder Ballroom, 128 N.E. Russell St.

The program will include choreographer and teacher Mary Oslund's works "60 Seconds," "The Awkward Duets," "Fog," "Band of Innocents" and "Gitanjali." Through lyrical, poetic and modern styles, the company of 10 dancers present a variety of ideas with dramatic movement.

Tickets are $10 for artists, $12 students and seniors and $14 general. For reservations, call 503-221-5857 ext. 3 or visit www.oslundandco.org.

Poetry Slam at Mt. Hood

A cutting edge filmmaker, an award-winning poet and the ever-popular "Poetry Slam" are all coming to the Mt. Hood Community College Gresham campus.

A student and faculty reading of original fiction, poetry and creative non-fiction is held on Tuesday, Nov. 8, in Room 1001. On Wednesday, Nov. 16, local filmmaker and director Matt McCormick will be the featured speaker in the MHCC Visual Arts Theater. McCormick is known for films that blur the lines between documentary and experimental practices.

Acclaimed writing teacher Judith Barrington comes to the campus theater on Wednesday, Nov. 30 and on Tuesday, Dec. 6, the popular "Poetry Slam" is held in the Town and Gown Room. The event has poets judged by members of the audience. It puts a dual emphasis on writing and performance, encouraging poets to focus on what they're saying and how they're saying it.

All of the events run from noon to 1 p.m. and are free and open to the public.

Time to Jam

Jam Night, Portland's ever-popular comedy and variety show is at Christian Performing Arts Center, 8131 N.
