

50¢

36

years of community service

The

Portland Observer

'City of Roses'

Volume XXXVI, Number 17

Established in 1970
Committed to Cultural Diversity

www.portlandobserver.com

Wednesday • April 26, 2006

Putting the Governor on Defense

Jim Hill and Pete Sorenson wage battle against the incumbent

See Metro Section inside

2006 Rose Festival Court

PHOTOS BY BRIAN GARATHS/
PRINTS CHARMING PHOTOGRAPHY

Jeannette Jamison, Parkrose

Arvi Catherine Bui, Benson

Martina Williams, Marshall

Treana Jackson, Jefferson

Julia Mayfield, Lincoln

Chastity Wells, St. Mary's Academy

Kelly Edwards, Franklin

Asia Washington, Roosevelt

Beth Susan Ford, Wilson

April Cheek, Central Catholic

Maggie Simpkins, Grant

Grace Katherine Neal, Cleveland

Alix Sandbothe, David Douglas

Katrina Holland, Madison

Carrying on a tradition

Portland's Rose Festival Court is in place for the upcoming Rose Festival, the largest community celebration in the state.

The court carries on a Rose Festival tradition while offering young women from 14 Portland-area schools opportunities for further education and networking

Each court member represents her school throughout the months of May and June at many community events, including meetings with business leaders, visits to hospitals and senior living centers, and meetings with a variety of civic groups.

One will be crowned Rose Festival Queen. The coronation ceremony moves to a new time this year. It's scheduled June 10 at 8:30 a.m. at Memorial Coliseum, just before the Grand Floral Parade which begins at 10 a.m.

PRESORT STD
US POSTAGE PAID
PORTLAND OR PERMIT
NO. 1610

University of Oregon
Knight Library
1299 University of Oregon
Eugene, OR 97403-1205

Week in The Review

Vancouver Teen Killed

Fort Vancouver High School students and the greater Vancouver community are in shock and disbelief over the death of a teenage girl randomly attacked by a man with a knife last Thursday while working in a McDonald's restaurant. David Sullivan, who suffers from paranoid schizophrenia, was charged with her murder. See story, page A2.

Gasoline Prices Spike

The pain at the pump keeps getting worse for U.S. consumers as the national price for gasoline skyrocketed 13.1 cents over the last week to $2.91 a gallon, the fourth highest average retail price on record, the government said on Monday.

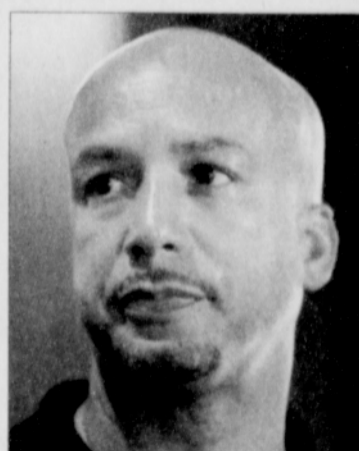

a spot in a mayoral runoff election. See story, page A2.

Victory School Out

Victory Middle School, a north-east Portland charter school with mostly African American stu-

Mayor Nagin in Runoff

In a complete reversal of support from four years ago, New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin scored heavily with black voters and was practically abandoned by whites as he won

New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin

dents, has lost its backing from the Oregon Board of Education and may close when state money runs out in August. See story, page A3.

Atrocities Bring Sanctions

The U.N. Security Council imposed sanctions Tuesday on four men accused of atrocities in Sudan's Darfur region, the first time it has moved to punish those responsible for three years of conflict that has left 180,000 dead.

Citizenship Surge

Efforts by Congress and local governments to crack down on illegal immigration - and the protests that followed those efforts - have produced a surge of interest in learning how to become a U.S. citizen. See story, page B6.