Nat King Cole is the subject of a PBS American Masters presentation on Sunday at 1 p.m. on Channel 10.

Nat King Cole on OPB

PBS biography series American Masters will air "The World of Nat King Cole", a new portrait of the musician's role as a celebrity and his part in the Civil Rights movement, airing Sunday, May 21 at 1 p.m. on KOPB Channel 10. The highly acclaimed series focuses on how Cole, the man Isaac Hayes calls the personification of cool, uniquely broke through major racial barriers in the entertainment industry. In addition, the film features interviews with many of Cole's admirers who share their thoughts about this unforgettable musician and black icon, including Stevie Wonder, B.B. King, Andre Benjamin (Outkast), Whoopi Goldberg, Les Paul, Quincy Jones, Harry Belafonte, Eartha Kitt and Isaac Hayes.

For Country. For Community. For You.

Be known as one of 'America's Finest.' Become an FBI Special Agent.

FBI at work in the community

Today's FBI demands that we become more diverse and we are working harder than ever to be inclusive - for all people, regardless of color, race, religion, national origin, political affiliation, marital status, disability, age, sex, or sexual orientation. To this end, we are rebuking our diversity efforts within the FBI and externally with such organizations as Boys and Girls Clubs of America, Race Against Drugs, the League of United Latin American Citizens, and the NAACP. Additionally, we're very proud to hold our bi-annual, 7-week FBI Citizens Academy. During weekly 3-hour sessions, we bring together leaders from a multitude of ethnic and religious groups to gain an insider's view of the FBI.

Foreign Language skills are an especially critical need for the FBI, particularly if you hold a Bachelor's degree in any subject area and have a native fluency in any of the following: Arabic, Chinese - all dialects, Farsi/Persian, Hebrew, Hindi, Japanese, Korean, Pashtu, Punjabi, Russian, Spanish, Urdu, and Vietnamese.

To qualify for the FBI Special Agent position, you must possess a four-year college degree plus three years of professional work experience, be available for assignment anywhere in the FBI's jurisdiction, be between the ages of 23 and 36, and be in excellent physical condition with the ability to pass a rigorous physical fitness test.

To learn more about these and other opportunities, please visit our Web site for complete details. Positions added daily.

www.fbijobs.com

You must be a U.S. citizen and consent to a complete background investigation, drug test, and polygraph as a prerequisite for employment. Only those candidates determined to be best qualified will be contacted to proceed in the selection process. TDD: (202) 324-2967.

The FBI is an equal opportunity employer.

Special Agents

We have opportunities for Special Agents from a broad range of educational disciplines and professions, however, the FBI has special needs for candidates with critical skills among the following areas: Computer Science or IT, Engineering, Foreign Counterintelligence, Information Systems Security, Military Intelligence, Physical Sciences, and Accounting/Financial Management.
