District Seeks Applicants to Serve on Custodian Civil Service Board

In accordance with ORS 242.330, the Custodian Civil Service Board (CCSB) is composed of three commissioners, and three alternates, appointed by the Portland Public School Board for six-year terms. The Custodian Civil Service Board oversees the appointment, employment, classification and discharge of custodians and assistant custodians in employ of the Portland Public School District.

The CCSB develops rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of the Custodians' Civil Service Law, including the classification of custodial employees, the manner in which examinations are to be held, the certification of eligible candidates for vacancies, the appointment of candidates for employment and the investigation into the dismissal of custodial employees. The CCSB is also required to report annually to the School Board. The annual report must include the rules of the CCSB, the effect of such rules, recommendations for a more effective classified civil service and a roster of all employees that fall under the Custodian Civil Service Law in the employ of the school district.

To be eligible for appointment, an applicant must (1) be an elector of the District, (2) be a resident of the District for at least five years immediately preceding appointment, (3) be known to be devoted to the principles of civil service, and (4) not be a member or employee of the School Board. Commissioners serve without compensation and may be removed for just cause at any time. Re-appointment to the CCSB is not automatic at the expiration of the term; however, commissioners may continue to serve until the School Board has appointed a successor.

Applications for appointment to the Custodian Civil Service Board can be downloaded from the Portland Public School website at www.pps.k12.or.us, by writing Portland Public Schools, P.O. Box 3107, Portland, Oregon, 97208-3107, or by calling the PPS board office at 503-916-3741.

Completed applications must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, June 13, 2006.

For more information, about the appointment process, contact the School Board office at 503-916-3741.
