PSU 'Roots' Festival Celebrates Diversity

Friday event open to the community

Concerns about diversity awareness on campus and a desire to celebrate multicultural roots bring together student organizations for the first ever Roots Festival, a daylong celebration of diversity on the Portland State University campus.

Turiya Autry

encouraged to enjoy their own roots and take delight in the cultures and customs of their fellow students and community members.

A panel discussion on the importance of diversity in higher education begins at 10 a.m. with Turiya The event on Friday, June 2, will Autry, Jack Straton, Peggy Ross take place in the PSU Multicultural and Jaye Sablan. A presentation by Center and adjacent park blocks. the Illumination Project, an interac-Students and the greater Portland tive theater troupe, will happen at community are 11 a.m. Later at 1 p.m. artists, ven- the possibility of putting together dors and music will fill the park a joint event that would include a blocks.

> Musical guests include the groups Keegan Smith, Solidity, Luminous Fog and March Fourth.

"I think this is the type of event that can foster discussions about diversity and its role in our community," said Rudy Soto, coordinator of the United Indian Students in Higher Education.

dents at PSU have talked about campus."

variety of student groups. Portland State has the largest population of students than any other university in Oregon with 25,000 Students.

"We need to reflect the diversity that is so abundant on this campus and in our community," said Multicultural Affairs Director Mayela Herrera, "It is an important For years, multicultural stu- issue for the development of our

Free Fishing Clinic for Kids

Youngsters 14 and under can celebrate National Fishing Week by learning to fish with experts at a Junior Fishing clinic sponsored by the Clackamas River Ranger District, Mt. Hood National Forest, US Fish and Wildlife/Eagle Creek Hatchery, Or-Wildlife and Portland General day, June 10 from 10 a.m. to 3 available for use.

p.m. with the help of experienced anglers and fisheries experts at Small Fry Pond in Promontory Park, approximately 7 miles southeast of Estacada off Highway 224.

There is no registration required and no fee to attend. egon Department of Fish and Children should bring warm clothing (if appropriate) and basic fishing equipment. Some The event takes place Saturbasic fishing equipment will be

TriMet Fares to Increase

TriMet has proposed a five-cent monthly passes would go up by fare increase to help cover the cost $2. of inflation. If approved by the TriMet Board of Directors at its June 28th meeting, the increase would take effect in September. would increase 5 cents to $2; and

The proposal does not address the transit agency's latest $4.3 million deficit caused by record high diesel prices. Officials said it is likely Two Zone fares would go up 5 that an additional nickel will be procents to $1.70; All-Zone fares posed later for a total of a 10-cent fare increase in September.

NASA Adopts Vernon School

Vernon Elementary School in of educational opportunities for lected to participate in a NASA program that provides student and teacher resources and support in the fields of science, technology, engineering and mathematics.

The school is one of 26 named as a NASA Explorer School nationwide and one of 16 in the western United States to partner with NASA Ames Research Center at Moffett the fall.

NASA's goal with the Explorer School program is to attract and retain students in science and tech-northeast Portland has been se- them and their teachers and administrators.

Selected schools are eligible to receive up to $17,500 during the three-year partnership to develop their Explorer School program and acquire technology, including equipment for the program's Digital Learning Network. The program also provides educators and students with content-specific activi-Field, Calif. The program begins in ties that augment their existing science and math education.

Vernon has 380 pre-kindergarten through sixth-grade students. Over the next two years, the school nical fields through a progression will add seventh and eighth grades.

Ingredients for life. SAFEWAY (5)

Washington Park Roses Prized

Portland's award winning Inter- United States winners this year. national Rose Test Garden in Wash-

"This is a very big coup," said Dr. ington Park has received another Charold Baer, Pacific Northwest Diprestigious, world-wide prize: The rector of the American Rose Society, Garden of Excellence Award pre- who nominated Washington Park sented by the World Federation of for the award. "No U.S. rose garden Rose Societies, one of only two even won the award until 2003."

ATTENTION HOMEOWNERS:

Are you behind on your house payments? We show Homeowners who are behind on their payments how to Sell in Just 7 Days! Without taking a loss!

Call 503 753 6680 TODAY to find out how!

in

The Nortland Observer

To contact The Hortland Observer

Call 503-288-0033 ads@portlandob server.com

Participate in Democracy

Election

Ballots

On Way

diversity P

BACK BY

Keebler Mix N' Match Sale

safeway.com ALL LIMITS ARE PER HOUSEHOLD, PER DAY Items & prices in this ad are available at your local Safeway stores. No sales to dealers, restaurants or institutions. Sales in retail quantities only. Quantities of some items may be limited and subject to availability. Not responsible for typograph item purchased, the regular price applies. Manufacturers' coupons may be used on purchased items only a not on free items. E-2006 Safeway Stores. For the second item free. BOGO offers are not 1/2 price sales. If only a single

Shop at Home. We Deliver.