Special Evening of Acoustic Power

Stellar guitarist to perform locally

Singer, songwriter and guitar phenomenon Janet Robin will be appearing at Mississippi Studios, 3939 N. Mississippi Ave., on Wednesday July 5 at 8 p.m. for a special evening of acoustic power pop.

Robin is touring in support of her release "After The Flood..." on Little Sister Records and introducing new material to her fans. She has been described as one of the country's best guitarists since here days as a featured member of the Lindsey Buckingham Band (Fleetwood Mac). Last year she performed with the likes of Meredith Brooks and Michelle Shocked.

"The thing I appreciate best about (After The Flood...) is the tender heart inside the tough gal," Shocked said. "It really takes a lot of courage to express the honesty you share throughout the material. The guitar playing is, as usual, stellar and you have created quite a voice for yourself."

Robin will be going into the studio within the next month to start recording her latest album with producers David Bianco (Tom Petty, Teenage Fanclub, Rhett Miller) and Steve Baughman (Eminem, 50Cent) at the helm.

She has been writing songs with the likes of Marcy Levy (Eric Clapton, Shakespeare's Sister) and Maia Sharp (Dixie Chicks, Bonnie Raitt). She will be performing a number of these new songs during her show. Tickets are $8.
