Long Time Resident Remembered

Georgia Marie Taylor

Funeral services for Georgia Marie Taylor were held Tuesday, Nov. 7 at Bethel AME Church in northeast Portland. She was born Nov. 23, 1924 in Texarkana, Ark., the third child of three daughters to George and Callie Stamps. She entered eternity on Nov. 1, 2006. She moved to New York City after graduating from Booker T. Washington High School in Texarkana in 1942 and attended beauty school. She later relocated to Portland where she met and married Fred Taylor Jr. who died in 1966. From this union came two sons, Gregory Allen and Fred

Walter III; and two daughters, Margo Louise and Kathy Lynn. Mrs. Taylor enjoyed a long and successful career in sales, first at JC Penny in Portland and later at Lerner's until her retirement. She was lovingly known as "Ms. Lerner" due to her warm greetings, fashion sense, bright smile and friendly personality. She was a faithful member of Bethel A.M.E. Church, serving in the Matron Club and staying involved in the Zodiac Tea and other church activities. She was a friend and neighbor with out reservations. As a volunteer in the schools where her children attended, she was a parent and grandparent extraordinaire.

Mrs. Taylor was also known for her green thumb. She spent her leisure time planting, growing and enjoying plants and flowers. She seemed to be very close to nature. Her flowers and plants brought her extreme pleasure. She was preceded in death by her husband and son Fred Taylor III; daughter Kathy; sisters, Willie Stamps and Ernestine Thurman; and a niece, Hazel Stamps. She will be dearly missed by her loving family; son Gregory and his wife Alandria Taylor; daughter Margo; three grandchildren, William, Rashod, and Morgan; a great granddaughter, Jordan; the Shofner's of Denver, Colo.; McAllister's of Jefferson, Texas; Campbell's of Pasco, Wash.; and host of other relatives and friends.

In Loving Memory
