

Valentine's Day with your favorite men in tutus

The all-male Les Trocks dancers are known for perfect classical ballet with comic timing.

After a far too long five-year absence, Portland's White Bird dance series is delighted to bring Les Trocks back for a not-to-be missed performance by the all-male company that has become a major dance phenomenon around the world.

Their expert knowledge of classical ballet, their perfect comic timing and the astounding fact that these superbly talented men dance en pointe - and do it magnificently

- have won them legions of fans from Asia to Europe, from South America to South Africa, and everywhere in between.

Treat you and your loved ones to a hilarious evening of comic antics and virtuoso ballet pyrotechnics by the "clown princes of ballet." This great comic creation of American stage takes place Wednesday, Feb. 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall.

Whitney Fast Tracks Divorce

(AP) -- Whitney Houston wants to fast-track her divorce from Bobby Brown.

The singer, who filed divorce papers in October, requested a default judgment in a document filed on Dec. 28 in Orange County Superior Court in California.

A checked box on the two-page document indicates that there are "no issues of division of community property" in the divorce.

Whitney Houston

Houston, 43, has asked for custody of the couple's 13-year-old daughter, Bobbi Kristina, and that Brown, 37, be allowed visitation rights.

The couple wed in 1992.
