Worker and was transferred to Portland, Ore. by Southern Pacific Railroad. That is where he made his home. He had many friends and church family members and was also a Deacon at his church. He fornia.

Cleveland, Ohio; two children,

Cheryl Sylla and Fredrick Mathis of Portland; seven grandchildren,

Darryl Frison, Lillian (Shawnice)

Thirdgill, Duray Thirdgill, Ya Sylla

and Kareesha Cummings; seven great grandchildren, Vaughn,

Delaun, Malik, Tamaia, Nevaeh,

Silina and Tiarra; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, friends and loved ones.

loved to travel and would visit his mom in Gonzales, relatives in San Antonio, his sisters in Cleveland, Ohio and his nieces and nephews often in Cali-he pursued it to the fullest. He leaves to cherish his memory one sister, Annie Mae Byrd of Mathis loved life and

(b) bituaries

Departed Was Honored in His Community

Nathan Nickerson, 1921 – 2007 who died Feb. 25 at age 85.

Nickerson was born to Ezekiel children were born. Watson Nickerson and Isabel Colorado on May 25, 1921.

He graduated from Bishop College in Marshall, Texas with a Bach-

Funeral services were held Nickerson married Myrtle Louise March 3, 2007 at Vancouver Av- Johnson in 1944. He then taught enue First Baptist Church in Port- chemistry and coached basketball land for Nathan Welcom Nickerson, in Ruston, La. The two moved to Nickerson Treatment Portland in 1946. To this union, five Center" in North Port-

During his career Nickerson had honor, as well as many Lankford Nickerson in Denver, many jobs, including recreation other awards received director at the Knott Street Community Center for the Bureau of Parks vice. and Recreation, deputy director and elor of Science in Chemistry. interimdirectorforthe Urban League and tennis, which he competed in Home.

and executive director of the Center for Community Mental Health.

"Nathan The land was named in his for his community ser-

His passion was tennis, tennis entrusted by Cox & Cox Funeral into his sixties. He also enjoyed reading, public speaking and card playing.

Nickerson loved mentoring young people, and as an employment specialist, he helped many people success secure through good jobs.

Arrangements are

Friend, Teacher, Colleague Remembered

Clynton A. Fox

Clynton A. Fox was born July 11, 1932 in Harper, Kan., the third child of Ira O. and Mary Fox. He died March 9, 2007 at Adventist Medical Center in Portland after suffering an intra cerebral hemorrhage. He was 74.

until after his freshman year of high obtained a Masters of Library Scischool when his family moved to ences degree in 1971 from the Uni-

Canby. He graduated from Canby versity of Portland.

Union High School in 1950, serving as class valedictorian and a member of the National Honor Society. He was also active in school plays, the Photography Club and played trombone in band.

He graduated from Lewis & Clark College in Portland in 1955 with a Bachelor of Science degree. He served in the U.S. Army and was stationed in Germany. He returned to Lewis & Clark after completing his military service, earning a Mas-Mr. Fox was educated in Harper ters of Education degree in 1963. He

He was an elementary school teacher in Washington and Oregon for many years, retiring from the David Douglas School District in Portland in 1990. After retirement he worked at Mt. Hood Community College in Gresham where he taught GED classes until 1998.

Clynt was a great friend, teacher and colleague. He bonded with people of all ages and walks of life, especially children. He was very supportive and helped many people lead productive lives.

He loved to visit the library, read biographies and had a keen interest in the lives and backgrounds of the people he met. His outgoing personality was infectious. Many of his closest acquaintances credit him for turning their lives around with his positive influence.

He was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Carroll. Survivors include his sister, Catherine S. Bean of Clackamas, Ore.; three nephews, Gayland Brown of Gladstone, Ore., and Morris Brown and Ron Brown of Baytown, Texas; two nieces, Carolyn Haun of Magnolia, Texas and Janice Green of Portland; several other family members and many friends.

friends.

Willie Mae Wells was born on Jan. 18, 1952 in Hollindale, Miss. She passed away on Feb. 21, 2007. Wells was born to Leon and Pearline Dixon. She is survived by her son, Cardell Wells Jr.; daughters, Valencia Wells, Yvette Wells, Veronica Wells and Nicole Johnson; father, Leon Dixon; sisters, Linda Cross

Senseless Violence

Saturday, March 24

"Family Day"

Grieving Family Gathering

5-7 p.m.

Refreshments!

African American Grief Support Services

1232-A NE Columbia Blvd.

503-421-0078

"Community Supporting Community" Upcoming events as well.

In Remembrance Willie Mae Wells, 1952 – 2007

He Lived Life to the Fullest

Larn D. Mathis

Larn D. Mathis was the only son of four children, born Aug. 2,

1912. On March 7, 2007 he de-

1912 - 2007

parted this life.

Mathis was born to Delbert and Georgia Mae Mathis in

Gonzales, Texas.

Two sisters preceded him in death,

Parthinia Green and

McIver. He was a member of the Community Church and received his education in the community schools in Gonzales. He was an active member in church and enjoyed singing and working on the family

Later in life he moved to San Antonio, Texas and there he married Eunice Vanzan in 1940, who also preceded him in death. He worked for the Southern Pacific

Railroad as a Stationary Engine

Clarence

farm.

A Mother Who Lived Simply and Graciously

Jessie B. Davis, 1923 - 2001

Jessie B. Davis was born to Carrie and Ben Hendricks Phlugerville, Texas on Oct. 18, 1923. She grew up in Austin, Texas

1946 - 2007

Theodore Gerode Warren was born June 21, 1946

to Leon "Snooks" James

Holiday and Bonnie Holiday. Born in Portland, Ore.

Teddy attended Highland

Elementary School and graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School in 1964. He was ambitious and a very hard worker. Anything he set his sights on he gave more than 100 percent.

That attitude allowed him to become the first African-American

Pacific Northwest Regional Sales

Representative for Bluebell Potato other African Americans to not only be hired by the company but to rise to greater levels of empowerment as well. Teddy believed that anything worth doing was worth doing well. Throughout his life he maintained the highest level of integrity

Teddy led the way for numerous

Chip Company.

with her family of seven boys and gift, a plant she cultivated with her three girls. In 1945 she married Elmer L. Davis and they had two children, Audrey and Lee. The family mithey settled permanently in the ing. Pacific Northwest, where along Linda. Jessie was devoted to home-

Anyone who spent time around Jessie discovered that she had a giving spirit. Visitors always left bearing a green thumb, a painting she painted, or an article of clothing she had made. This was her gift from grated west to Portland, Ore., where God, and his supply is never-end-came two more children, Chris and in controversy or politics, but rather people with various interesting lived her life with a simplicity that attractions in and around Portmaking. Early on, the Davises be- had a wonderful degree of purity. came friends of the founders of She would not get sidetracked, Berean Baptist Church. They be- rather she stayed with what was house or attend a potluck she was

Departed Led Through Love and Movement true testament to his own inherent nature.

He was a deep thinker and was very spiritual, especially in his later years of life. He believed in God with a passion and up to the last moment accepted that Heaven was his next destination. Teddy loved his family and never strayed from the flock. He knew that his family was his strength. He never failed to mention the words spoken by his father, Snooks, or the wisdom of his Like all of us, Teddy sometimes lived in the confines of his own mind but never lost sight of the importance of family, love, and good friends. We must realize that the essence of who Teddy really was can be framed in the following: He tance of sticking together.

remained a faithful mem- children. Her focus on family was her buttermilk pie, a creamy lemon berformost of her adult amazing. She wrote her own autobi- pie or her tasty southern fried ography, and produced a pictorial chicken. genealogy with her niece Bobbie Campbell, that traces her family line all the way back to Ann Townsend, her great-great grandmother who was born a slave. Jessie was the glue that held her family together. Jessie's career was dedicated to children. She served in the Portland Public Schools for many years. She wrote and published a book that was used in the school Jessie didn't get bogged down system and in the area to acquaint

You couldn't leave Jessie's came members of Berean, and Jessie important: family and especially her a part of without enjoying a piece of

- the lyrics of songs, and through movement - the way he moved on

He could say more through movement than most people said in an entire manuscript. He could tell you how much he loved you with his feet. His face symbolized his acceptance of his humanity. And lastly,

Teddy enjoyed the competition of athletics and the art of movement in death are his parents Leon and

Holiday, Aisha Lincoln, Theresa

Warren, Lynda Holiday-Lewis,

Edna Kimmons (Pastor Charles),

Gwendolyn Holiday, Leon G. Holiday, Billy R. Holiday and James A.

Holiday; six grandchildren and a Services entrusted by Cox & Cox host of relatives and friends.

We will miss him. Preceding him

Teddy is survived by his daugh-

His children are a the way he dressed, through music the dance floor.

through sports.

Bonnie Holiday.

Funeral Home.

mother, Bonnie. What both his ter, Tanesha Warren; sons, Ruben parents emphasized was the impor- and Teddy D. Warren; sisters, Ruth

She was truly a blessing to those who knew here and she will be greatly missed.

CONGRATULATIONS! KiKi Washington and Willis Jenkins

Ariana Joyce Jenkins

Deans Barber Shop

Here When You Need Us

A.D. Williams

Shop 503-282-2920 Cell 503-309-4488

213 N.E. Hancock Portland. OR 97212 8:30 am - 6:00 pm Tues.-Sat.

Northwest Voice For Christ Community Church

A New Worship Experience In Northeast Portland

The Faithful Church" Rev. 3: 7-12 "Keeping It Real Jesus' Way"

84 NE Killingsworth Street, Portland, Oregon

Worship Service -- Sundays 1:30 P.M. Prayer/Bible Study -- Wednesdays 6:00 P.M. Gilgal: a Training Ministry (2nd Kings 4:38)

Rev. H. L. Hodge, Ph.D. -- Pastor/Teacher/Life Change Specialist 503-334-6239

All are welcome to come and get a solid foundation on how Jesus impacts our lives in the 21st century! We will keep it real.

Email: hodgehspks@msn.com • www/nwvctrainingministry.com

Working for Heaven In 2007

The Bethesda Christian Church has been under new leadership for the last 7 years, Pastor Melvin Bailey took on his pastoral duties in 2000 and since that time our church has experienced some major changes.

We first did a $300,000 remodeling project; the entire building was renovated, inside and out. On the inside, some of our additions included the purchasing of a new conference table & chairs for our new conference room as well as a new Baptismal pool in our upstairs Sanctuary. While on the outside, a new underground sprinkler system was installed.

With the Lords' help, our leaders are guiding the church in a new direction; Bethesda continues to connect itself with such positive organizations as The Albina Ministerial Alliance here in Portland, Oregon.

We have an effective outreach ministry that continues to touch people's lives; we conduct regular services at Unthanka Plaza, The Portland Rescue Mission, and the Oregon State Prison. We also operate a community food program as well as, host a free Thanksgiving Dinner program every year here at the church.

This year of 2007, we are starting a brand new staff; we now have 5 Associate Pastors. 3 new Deacons, and new Auxiliary leaders. There is a new spirit of co-operation and unity here in our church and we give God all the honor & Glory.

in his treatment of family and friends. expressed himself through style - anxiety and unhappiness. This is the road to a better life with fewer problems.

Just get it, read it and try it, and you'll never be the same.

Available at your local bookstore or from Dianetics Foundation, 709 SW Salmon St. Portland, OR. 97205 Phone 503.228.0116

> · Free shipping · All orders shipped within 24 hours

2004 BPI. All Rights Reserved. DIANETICS is a trade fechnology Center and is used with its permission.

www.dianetics.org Paperback $8.00

Dianetics can help you live a better and happier life.

Read the book used by millions to reduce stress,