In the Neighborhood

From your experience, what would you recommend to graduating students seeking a career?

Get into an apprenticeship or practical training, because a lot of professions have practical training.
—Eugene Smith

Go and meet with a college or career counselor or adviser; know when you can transfer.
—Tina Russell

Find some people who are in the career you want to be in— and work with them and learn.
—John Powell

Do not procrastinate; get all of your classes done in a timely manner. Be aware of your work load.
—Rose Supan

Choose a career that you want to do and stay committed to it—and stay passionate. Be a good role model for the children growing up.
—Shalonda McGhee

Keep an open mind and give yourself a chance to meet with other cultures of the world.
—Luke Williams
