Rose Festival Honors Community

Three outstanding Portland residents representing youth, courage and wisdom will serve as the 2007 Centennial Grand Floral Parade Grand Marshals.

Rose Quinn, 8, of St. Clare School in southwest Portland, Lisa Snider, wife of a wounded police officer, and Paul Knauls Sr., known as the "Mayor of Northeast Portland" were chosen for the honor after Rose Festival President Leslie Goodlow-Baldwin pored over 130 submissions.

"We were able to narrow it down to about 12 good choices, but I really wanted to look for someone who represented different generations of Portlanders," says Goodlow-Baldwin. "Since we could only fit a few people in the car I decided these three best fit what we were looking for." The other nine selections have been invited to ride on the Rose Festival's 100 Person Float sponsored by Con-way.

Portland Rose Festival's Grand Floral Parade, one of the top five parades in the country as ranked by USA Today, is Saturday, June 9 at 10 a.m. Indoor tickets are $30, outdoor prices are $30 for premium chairs and $25 for bleacher seating.

Tickets are available on-line at rosefestival.org, the Rose Quarter Box Office or charge buy phone at 1-877-789-ROSE (7673).

"If our history can challenge the next wave of musicians to keep moving and changing, to keep spiritually hungry and horny, that's what it's all about." Carlos Santana
