Pedalpalooza Bike Fest

Pedalpalooza—a citywide celebration of bike-related events, rides, feasts, parties and clinics, kicks off this week with 132 events hosted by bike groups, individuals and city agencies like the Portland Department of Transportation.

Get tips on what to look for in a bike and how to identify what type of bike meets your cycling needs at the Portland By Cycle Clinic: "Buying a Bike," Wednesday, June 13 from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. at 7-Comers Cycles, 3218 S.E. 21st Ave.

The North Portland Trails Ride on Sunday, June 17, takes off from Portsmouth and Willamette at 2 p.m. This ride will tour 15 miles of trails with hardly any cars to be encountered. Email Roger Geller at roger.geller@gmail.com.

What's better than riding bikes on a summer evening and having a picnic afterwards? Meet at the Alberta Co-op, 1500 N.E. Alberta Ave., for the Pedal Potluck Picnic on Tuesday, June 19. This casual ride begins at 6:30 p.m. and will be approximately three to five miles long, ending in a mystery public "park" setting. Email Shawn Granton at urbanadventureleague@scribble.com.

The Beginning Women Cyclists Clinic on Tuesday, June 19 at Hollywood Bike Gallery, 5319 N.E. Sandy Blvd., is designed to show women cyclists the easy way to learn, providing the basics and plenty of tips. Email amy@bikegallery.com or call 503-281-9800.
